What is a collocation?

A collocation is a pair or group of words that are often used together. These combinations sound natural to native speakers, but students of English have to make a special effort to learn them because they are often difficult to guess. Some combinations just sound ‘wrong’ to native speakers of English. For example, the adjective fast collocates with cars, but not with a glance.

We say ...	We don't say ...
fast cars fast food	quick cars quick food
a quick glance a quick meal	a fast glance a fast meal

Learning collocations is an important part of learning the vocabulary of a language. Some collocations are fixed, or very strong, for example take a photo, where no word other than take collocates with photo to give the same meaning. Some collocations are more open, where several different words may be used to give a similar meaning, for example keep to / stick to the rules. Here are some more examples of collocations.

You must make an effort and study for your exams (NOT ~~do~~ an effort)
Did you watch TV last night? (NOT ~~look at~~ TV)

This car has a very powerful engine. It can do 200 km an hour. (NOT ~~strong~~ engine)
There are some ancient monuments nearby. (NOT ~~antique~~ monuments)

Sometimes, a pair of words may not be absolutely wrong, and people will understand what is meant, but it may not be the natural, normal collocation. If someone says I did a few mistakes they will be understood, but a fluent speaker of English would probably say I made a few mistakes.

Compounds and idioms

Compounds are units of meaning formed with two or more words. Sometimes the words are written separately, sometimes they have a hyphen and sometimes they are written as one word. Usually the meaning of the compound can be guessed by knowing the meaning of the individual words. Some examples of compounds are car park, post office, narrow-minded, shoelaces, teapot.

It is not always easy to separate collocations and compounds and, where they are useful for learners or an important part of the vocabulary of a topic, we include some compounds in this book too.

Idioms are groups of words in a fixed order that have a meaning that cannot be guessed by knowing the meaning of the individual words. For example, pass the buck is an idiom meaning ‘to pass responsibility for a problem to another person to avoid dealing with it oneself’. We deal with idioms in detail in the book English Idioms in Use in this series.

C

Why learn collocations?

Learning collocations is a good idea because they can:

- give you the most natural way to say something: smoking is strictly forbidden is more natural than smoking is strongly forbidden.
- give you alternative ways of saying something, which may be more colourful/expressive or more precise: instead of repeating It was very cold and very dark, we can say It was bitterly cold and pitch dark.
- improve your style in writing: instead of saying poverty causes crime, you can say poverty breeds crime; instead of saying a big meal you can say a substantial meal. You may not need or want to use these in informal conversations, but in writing they can give your text more variety and make it read better: this book includes notes about formality wherever the collocations are especially formal or informal.

Exercises

1.1 Read A and B and answer these questions.

- 1 What is a collocation?
- 2 Which of these words does fast collocate with: car, food, glance, meal?
- 3 Which of these are compounds: computer, narrow-minded, teapot, ancient monument, car park?
- 4 What do we call expressions like pass the buck and be over the moon?

1.2 Make ten collocations from the words in the box.

an effort ancient bitterly make breakfast cold dark engine forbidden mistakes have make meal monument pitch powerful strictly substantial TV watch

1.3 Are these statements about collocations true or false?

- 1 Learning collocations will make your English sound more natural.
- 2 Learning collocations will help you to express yourself in a variety of ways.
- 3 Learning collocations will help you to write better English.
- 4 Using collocations properly will get you better marks in exams.
- 5 You will not be understood unless you use collocations properly.

1.4 Put the expressions from the box into the correct category in the table below.

make a mistake a storm in a tea cup live music checkpoint key ring pull somebody's leg heavy snow valid passport teapot bitterly disappointed

compound	collocation	idiom

1.5 Underline the collocations in this text.

When I left university I made a decision to take up a profession in which I could be creative. I could play the guitar, but I'd never written any songs. Nonetheless I decided to become a singer-songwriter. I made some recordings but I had a rather heavy cold so they didn't sound good. I made some more, and sent them to a record company and waited for them to reply.

So, while I was waiting to become famous, I got a job in a fast-food restaurant. That was five years ago. I'm still doing the same job.

Finding, recording and learning collocations

Finding collocations

There are two main ways in which you can find collocations.

- You can train yourself to notice them whenever you read or listen to anything in English. Look at the collocations that are worth learning from this short text in English.

After giving Mark a lift to the airport, Cathy made her way home. What an exciting life he led! At times Cathy felt desperately jealous of him. She spent her time doing little more than taking care of him and the children. Now her sister was getting divorced and would doubtless be making demands on her too. Cathy had promised to give her sister a call as soon as she got home but she decided to run herself a bath first. She had a sharp pain in her side and hoped that a hot bath might ease the pain.

TIP Get into the habit of making a note of any good collocations you come across in any English text you read.

- You can find them in any good learner's dictionary.

For example, if you look up the word sharp you will find some of these collocations:

a sharp pain
a sharp bend/turn a sharp contrast/difference/distinction a sharp rise/increase/drop

TIP When you look up a new word make a point of noting it down in several different collocations.

Recording collocations

The best way to record a collocation is in a phrase or a sentence showing how it is used. Highlight the collocation by underlining it or by using a highlighting pen.

For example: I don't have access to that kind of secret information.

Or: Jim gave me a very useful piece of advice.

Learning collocations

Learning collocations is not so different from learning any vocabulary item. The key things are to:

- regularly revise what you want to learn
- practise using what you want to learn in contexts that are meaningful for you personally
- learn collocations in groups to help you fix them in your memory. You might group together collocations relating to the same topic. Or you might group collocations based on the same word, for example:

I must find a way to help him.

Can you find your way back to my house?

I learnt the hard way that Jack can't be trusted.

Please tell me if I'm getting in your way.

You must give way to traffic from the left.

I've tried every possible way to get him to change his mind.

Exercises

2.1 Underline 11 collocations in this text.

My friend Beth is desperately worried about her son at the moment. He wants to enrol on a course of some sort but just can't make a decision about what to study. I gave Beth a ring and we had a long chat about it last night. She said he'd like to study for a degree but is afraid he won't meet the requirements for university entry. Beth thinks he should do a course in Management because he'd like to set up his own business in the future. I agreed that that would be a wise choice.

1 She's having	her duty.
2 She's taking	a lecture.
3 She's giving	a party.
4 She's making	an exam.
5 She's doing	good progress.

2.3 Correct the eight collocation errors in this text. Use a dictionary to help you if necessary.

In the morning I made some work in the garden, then I spent a rest for about an hour before going out to have some shopping in town. It was my sister's birthday and I wanted to do a special effort to cook a nice meal for her. I gave a look at a new Thai cookery book in the bookshop and decided to buy it. It has some totally easy recipes and I managed to do a good impression with my very first Thai meal. I think my sister utterly enjoyed her birthday.

2.4 Look at this entry for the verb lead in the Cambridge Advanced Learner's Dictionary. What collocations could you learn from this entry? Underline or highlight them. Then write one new sentence for each of them.

lead [CONTROL] E /li:d/ verb [I or T] (led, led) to control a group of people, a country, or a situation: I think we've chosen the right person to lead the expedition. ◎ I've asked Gemma to lead the discussion. ◎ Who will be leading the inquiry into the accident?
● lead sb by the nose INFORMAL to control someone and make them do exactly what you want them to do

See also Unit 3, Using your dictionary.

FOLLOW UP

Use a dictionary to find three or four other good collocations for each of these words:
desperately pain wise run
Write the collocations you find in an appropriate way in your vocabulary notebook.

Using your dictionary

A good learner's dictionary will give you information on collocations. Sometimes the information is highlighted in some special way. In other cases, the examples used in the dictionary include the most common collocations.

In the Cambridge Advanced Learner's Dictionary (CALD), common and useful collocations are given in bold type. Look at the CALD entry for the word pain and note how useful collocations are highlighted in bold.

pain E /peɪn/ noun [C or U] 1 a feeling of physical suffering caused by injury or illness: Her symptoms included abdominal pain and vomiting. ◦ Are you in (= suffering from) pain? ◦ She was in constant pain. ◦ These tablets should help to ease the pain. ◦ I felt a sharp pain in my foot. ◦ He's been suffering various aches and pains for years. 2 emotional or mental suffering: It's a film about the pains and pleasures of parenthood. ◦ The parents are still in great pain over the death of their child.

- a pain (in the neck) INFORMAL someone or something that is very annoying: That child is a real pain in the neck.

CD-ROM versions of dictionaries are useful because you can usually search for a lot more information very quickly indeed. The CALD CD-ROM has a special button labelled Collocations in many entries. Clicking on this button gives you a list of collocations. Here are the verb collocations for pain. The dictionary also gives adjectives and nouns which are used with pain.

Collocations

pain

Verbs

- experience / feel / suffer pain
I experienced chest pains and dizziness.
- alleviate / ease / lessen / relieve / soothe pain
A hot bath may help to relieve the pain.
- cause / inflict pain
He deliberately inflicted pain on his pupils.
- complain of pain
She came in complaining of stomach pains.
- pain subsides
As the pain subsided, I began to relax.
- be racked with pain
He is emaciated and racked with pain.

A good dictionary will also tell you if a collocation is formal or informal. For example, CALD indicates that to take somebody up on an offer is an informal collocation (accept an offer would be a more formal alternative).

offer E /'ɒf.ər/ US /'ɑ:f.fər/ noun [C] when someone asks you if you would like to have something or if you would like them to do something: "If you like I can do some shopping for you." "That's a very kind offer." ◦ I must say the offer of a weekend in Barcelona quite tempts me. ◦ INFORMAL One day I'll take you up on (= accept) that offer.

TIP

When you buy a dictionary, make sure it gives good, clear information about collocations. When you look up words, if you don't know the collocations, highlight them in your dictionary or transfer them to your vocabulary notebook.

Exercises

3.1 Answer these questions about collocations and dictionaries.

- 1 How does the Cambridge Advanced Learner's Dictionary show collocations?
- 2 So, which five collocations with pain can you see in the top box on the opposite page?
- 3 Why is a CD-Rom dictionary particularly useful?
- 4 What happens if you click on the Collocations button when using the Cambridge Advanced Learner's Dictionary CD-Rom?
- 5 How does the Cambridge Advanced Learner's Dictionary indicate that a collocation is informal?
- 6 Look at the dictionary that you normally use. Does it indicate collocations? If so how?
- 7 Look up pain in your own dictionary. Which of the collocations on the left-hand page does it either highlight or illustrate in example sentences?
Does it show any other interesting collocations for pain?
- 8 Look up the noun offer in your own dictionary. What collocations can you find?
Does the dictionary indicate whether the collocations are formal/informal? If so, how?

3.2 Put the expressions from the box into the correct category in the table below.

to suffer pain to alleviate pain to be racked with pain to cause pain to complain of pain to ease pain to experience pain to feel pain to inflict pain to lessen pain to relieve pain to soothe pain pain subsides

making others experience pain	the experience of being in pain	making pain go away

3.3 Look in a good learner's dictionary. What collocations do you find there for the word ache?

FOLLOW UP

Look up two or three words that you have recently learnt, using a good learner's dictionary.
Write down any interesting collocations that are shown for those words.

Types of collocation

There are many different types of collocations. Here are some examples.

Adjectives and nouns

Notice adjectives that are typically used with particular nouns.

Jean always wears red or yellow or some other bright colour.

We had a brief chat about the exams but didn't have time to discuss them properly.

Unemployment is a major problem for the government at the moment.

Improving the health service is another key issue for government.

Nouns and verbs

Notice how nouns and verbs often go together. The examples below are all to do with economics and business.

The economy boomed in the 1990s. [the economy was very strong]

The company has grown and now employs 50 more people than last year.

The company has expanded and now has branches in most major cities.

The two companies merged in 2003 and now form one very large corporation.

The company launched the product in 2002. [introduced the product]

The price increase poses a problem for us. [is a problem]

The Internet has created opportunities for our business. [brought new opportunities]

C

Noun + noun

There are a lot of collocations with the pattern a ... of ....

As Sam read the lies about him, he felt a surge of anger. [literary: a sudden angry feeling]

Every parent feels a sense of pride when their child does well or wins something.

I felt a pang of nostalgia when I saw the old photos of the village where I grew up.

Verbs and expressions with prepositions

Some verbs collocate with particular prepositional expressions.

As Jack went on stage to receive his gold medal for the judo competition you could see his parents swelling with pride. [looking extremely proud]

I was filled with horror when I read the newspaper report of the explosion.

Verbs and adverbs

Some verbs have particular adverbs which regularly collocate with them.

She pulled steadily on the rope and helped him to safety. [pulled firmly and evenly]

He placed the beautiful vase gently on the window ledge.

'I love you and want to marry you,' Derek whispered softly to Marsha.

She smiled proudly as she looked at the photos of her new grandson.

F

Adverbs and adjectives

Adjectives often have particular adverbs which regularly collocate with them.

They are happily married.

I am fully aware that there are serious problems. [I know well]

Harry was blissfully unaware that he was in danger. [Harry had no idea at all, often used about something unpleasant]

Exercises

4.1 Complete each sentence with a collocation from A.

- 1 Come to my office ten minutes before the meeting so we can have ...
- 2 With her lovely dark hair Uma looks best when she wears ...
- 3 In your essay on the influence of TV, don't forget to discuss these ...
- 4 There is some crime in our town but it isn't ...

4.2 Replace the underlined words with a collocating verb from B.

- 1 We are going to introduce an exciting new product in June.
- 2 The economy was extremely high 20 years ago.
- 3 The new university they are planning will provide a lot of job opportunities.
- 4 There are always some problems when two companies join together but I think it will be worth it in the long run.
- 5 The increase in oil prices certainly creates a problem for us.
- 6 The company got bigger and has now added children's clothing to its product range.

4.3 Choose the correct feeling from the box to complete each sentence.

anger horror tears nostalgia pride pride

- 1 Most older people feel a slight pang of as they think back on their schooldays.
- 2 Carla's father was filled with when he saw that she had dyed her beautiful black hair blonde.
- 3 When Paul saw how harshly the poor were treated by the wealthy landowners he felt a surge of
- 4 Swelling with, Dan watched his daughter pick up her violin and play.
- 5 When she saw her exam results, Kate burst into
- 6 If people have a sense of in their town, they are more likely to behave well there.

4.4 Look at E and F and choose the correct adverb to complete these sentences.

- 1 Perhaps it's a good thing that Ken's unaware of what people really think of him.
- 2 I am aware that there will be problems whatever we decide.
- 3 Nadya smiled as she watched the children playing happily in the garden.
- 4 My grandparents have been married for 45 years.
- 5 Place the glasses in the box – they're very fragile.
- 6 Paul whispered in Anna's ear that he would always love her.

4.5 Which of the sections A–F on the opposite page would each of these collocations fit into?

1 make a decision	6 roar with laughter
2 blissfully happy	7 a key factor
3 tread carefully	8 prices rise
4 a surge of emotion	9 a ginger cat
5 acutely embarrassing	10 burst into song

Make a page in your vocabulary notebook for each of the types of collocations listed on the opposite page.

Register

Often, collocations rather than individual words suggest a particular register. For example, phrases using pretty meaning fairly sound informal when used with negative adjectives (pretty awful, pretty dreadful, pretty dull), and are typical of spoken English.

Spoken English

Here are some more collocations which are almost exclusively found in spoken English.

I'm bored stiff¹
in this lesson!

¹extremely bored

You badly need a haircut!

I'll have a think about it and let you know.

Give me a ring²
when you get home.

²give me a phone call

Formal English

Some collocations are typical of formal English and are most likely to be found in an official, often legal, context, such as in notices.

Passengers must not alight from the bus whilst it is in motion.
[get off the bus]

Cyclists must dismount
[get off their bicycles]

Trespassers will be prosecuted [people who go onto someone's land or enter their building without permission will be taken to court]

Please dispose of unwanted items in the receptacle² provided [throw away]

¹throw away
²container used for storing or putting objects in

Newspaper English

Some collocations – particularly ones that use short, dramatic words – are found mainly in newspapers. In most cases they would not normally be used in everyday conversation.

COMPUTER FACTORY TO AXE JOBS

[make staff redundant]

AIRLINE SLASHES PRICES

[cuts prices drastically]

GOVERNMENT SPENDING WILL ROCKET THIS YEAR

POLICE CRACK DOWN ON SPEEDING

[start dealing with it in a more severe way]

POLICE QUIZ 16-YEAR-OLD IN MURDER ENQUIRY

[ask questions]

FLU OUTBREAK HITS SOUTHERN EUROPE

Business English

Some collocations are characteristic of business English.

to submit a tender [present a document offering to do a job and stating the price] to raise capital [get money to put into a business] to go into partnership with someone [agree to start or run a business with someone] to start up a business

Exercises

5.1 Underline formal (F) or informal (I) collocations in these sentences (one per sentence) and put F or I in the brackets at the end.

- 1 Cyclists should dismount before crossing the footbridge. ()
- 2 Never dispose of batteries and similar items by throwing them onto a fire. ()
- 3 The students were all bored stiff by the lecture. ()
- 4 Passengers must alight from the bus through the rear door. ()
- 5 The grass badly needs cutting. ()
- 6 Please place all used tickets in the receptacle provided as you leave the building. ()

5.2 Underline typical news/media collocations in these newspaper clips.

1 OIL COMPANIES SLASH PRICES

There was good news for motorists today as pump prices were lowered by the major oil companies.

3 FLOODS HIT CENTRAL REGION

Towns and villages in the Central region were battling against floods tonight as heavy rain continued.

2 DETECTIVES QUIZ BUSINESSMAN OVER MISSING TEENAGER

Senior detectives interviewed a man who has been named as prime suspect in the case of a missing 18 year-old who is feared to have been abducted.

4 CAR FIRM TO AXE 200 JOBS

The Presco car firm has announced that 200 workers will be made redundant at its Kenton factory. The job losses are the result of falling profits.

5.3 Rewrite the headlines in exercise 5.2 using collocations more typical of ordinary conversation, as if you were telling a friend the news. Start each answer with 'Have you heard...?' Use a dictionary if necessary.

5.4 Match the beginning of each sentence on the left with its ending on the right to make typical collocations used in business English.

1 We raised	partnership to develop a new range of products.
2 They submitted	capital to expand the business.
3 They went into	a business to supply sports equipment to schools.
4 We started up	a tender for the new stadium.

5.5 Choose a formal or informal collocation as instructed at the end of each sentence. Use a dictionary if necessary.

- 1 She was dead / extremely keen to meet the new director. (informal)
- 2 We should be boarding the aircraft / getting on the plane in about ten minutes. (formal)
- 3 Mr Trotter paid for / bore the cost of the repairs. (formal)
- 4 I withdrew from / dropped out of my university course after a year. (informal)
- 5 The president launched into / embarked upon a detailed explanation of his policies. (informal)

Intensifying adverbs

In English there are lots of other ways of saying very or very much. For example, we can use words such as highly, utterly, bitterly, deeply. These alternatives collocate strongly with specific words, and other combinations often sound unnatural.

A

collocations	comments
(un)likely unusual successful competitive profitable effective controversial recommended	Highly is used with some probability words (likely , unlikely). With the exception of highly controversial it usually combines with very positive words. Extremely can also be used with all the opposite adjectives except recommended.

It is highly unlikely that I'll finish my work on time.

Jill's highly unusual behaviour began to worry her parents.

B

Absolutely, utterly

collocations	comments
ridiculous stupid impossible wrong alone appalled convinced devastated miserable	Absolutely and (slightly more formal) utterly combine with adjectives with very extreme meanings where we can't use very . For example, we say absolutely/utterly exhausted , not very exhausted , whereas we say very tired , but not absolutely or utterly tired . Often, but not always, these words have negative connotations.

It was an absolutely stupid comment to make.

The whole area was utterly devastated after the earthquake.

Bitterly, deeply, ridiculously, strongly

word	collocations	comments
bitterly	disappointing/disappointed resent criticise regret complain cry weep	carries a feeling of deep sadness; used slightly more in writing than in conversation deeply	ashamed concerned shocked committed moved affected hurt (of feelings) regret care religious unhappy	collocates mainly with words associated with feelings; used slightly more in writing than in conversation
ridiculously	cheap expensive easy low high long short small large early	suggests something extreme, which seems unbelievable or unreasonable strongly	oppose influence believe deny recommend support condemn suggest feel argue object	collocates with verbs, particularly verbs that relate to having an opinion

I was bitterly disappointed when I failed the exam.

Professor McDellvit was always deeply committed to her students.

The restaurant was ridiculously expensive. I don't think we'll go there again.

I would strongly recommend that you learn a foreign language.

Exercises

6.1 Choose an adverb from the box to replace very in each of these expressions.

utterly strongly bitterly ridiculously highly deeply

1 very ashamed	6 very disappointing
2 very cheap	7 very opposed
3 very controversial	8 very ridiculous
4 very stupid	9 very easy
5 very successful	10 very concerned

6.2 Use a collocation from exercise 6.1 to complete each of these sentences.

- 1 The flight from London to Rome was It only cost 20 euros.
- 2 Some people love her new book, others are very angry about it. It is
- 3 His father was a pacifist all his life and was to war.
- 4 The exam results were for the whole class. We had all expected to do much better.
- 5 When I realised how much my selfish behaviour had upset everyone, I was
- 6 In the 1990s she ran a(n) company which made outstanding profits.
- 7 Everyone got more than 95% correct in the test; it was
- 8 You must apologise immediately. It was a(n) remark to make.
- 9 She has always been about the environment and would like to work for a conservation agency.
- 10 That you should even think that I would steal money from you is ! You must be crazy!

6.3 In each of these sets of phrases, one is not a correct collocation. Cross out the incorrect one.

- 1 strongly recommend strongly influence strongly love strongly dislike
- 2 highly educated highly profitable highly unusual highly exhausted
- 3 bitterly regard bitterly regret bitterly resent bitterly criticise
- 4 absolutely convinced absolutely tired absolutely devastated absolutely absurd
- 5 deeply unhappy deeply religious deeply successful deeply committed

6.4 In this short text, the writer has often misused the word strongly. Correct the wrong collocations using adverbs from the box. Use each adverb once only.

bitterly strictly deeply utterly

Everyone was complaining strongly when they heard about the new plan. People were strongly shocked to hear that children would be strongly forbidden to use the sports ground and most people were strongly opposed to the new rules. Even people who normally never expressed an opinion were strongly appalled by the proposals.

Everyday verbs I

This unit deals with make and do, two verbs that many learners have problems with. If you remember that the basic meaning of make is about producing something and the basic meaning of do is about performing an action, then the collocations on this page may seem more logical.

A Make

collocation	example
make arrangements for	The school can make arrangements for pupils with special needs.
make a change / changes	The new manager is planning to make some changes .
make a choice	Jill had to make a choice between her career and her family.
make a comment / comments	Would anyone like to make any comments on the talk?
make a contribution to	She made a useful contribution to the discussion.
make a decision	I'm glad it's you who has to make the decision , not me.
make an effort	Joe is really making an effort with his maths this term.
make an excuse	I'm too tired to go out tonight. Let's make an excuse and stay at home.
make friends	Karen is very good at making friends .
make an improvement	Repainting the room has really made an improvement .
make a mistake	They've made a mistake in our bill.
make a phone call	I've got to make some phone calls before dinner.
make progress	Harriet is making progress with all her schoolwork.

B Do

collocation	example
do your best	All that matters in the exam is to do your best .
do damage	The storm did some damage to our roof.
do an experiment	We are doing an experiment to test how the metal reacts with water.
do exercises	We'll do some exercises practising these collocations tomorrow.
do someone a good turn / do someone a favour	Scouts and guides are supposed to do someone a good turn every day.
do harm	Changing the rules may do more harm than good .
do your hair	No, I'm not ready. I haven't done my hair yet.
do your homework	My son has to do his homework straight after school.
do the ironing/shopping/washing, etc.	I'll do the washing if you do the ironing .
do some work	We'll do some work on our project and then we'll go to the cinema.

TIP

Notice all the patterns that you can see in these tables. For example, make a comment, make an excuse and make a contribution to a discussion are all connected with saying things. Noticing connections like this may help you to remember the correct collocation.

Exercises

7.1 Use a collocation with make and a noun instead of the underlined words in each of these conversations.

1 Miriam: The bill says we've had three desserts. We only had two.
Rosa: The waiter must have been mistaken.

2 Kim: It's so difficult. Should I take the job or not?
Todd: I know it's difficult. But you have to decide one way or the other.

3 Jane: Can you and Brian come to dinner on Saturday?
Jill: Yes, we'll have to arrange to get a babysitter, but it should be OK.

4 Brona: Did you hear about the air traffic controllers' strike in the USA?
Aaron: Yes. We had to change our travel itinerary because of it.

5 Pete: Can I have chips and rice with my lunch?
Clare: No, you have to choose, chips or rice, but not both.

6 Fran: Do you intend to speak at the meeting?
Gloria: Yes, I hope I can contribute to the debate.

7.2 Choose the correct collocation, do or make.

- 1 Did the fire do / make much damage to the factory?
- 2 I hate doing / making my homework at the last minute.
- 3 You must do / make an effort to work harder.
- 4 Did you do / make any work at the weekend?
- 5 We are trying to do / make improvements to the system for registering.
- 6 Do you think it would do / make any harm if I cut some leaves off this plant?

7.3 You are designing a questionnaire for your school magazine. Complete each question with do or make.

How NICE are you?
	ALWAYS	SOMETIMES	NEVER
1 Do you always your best to be on time when meeting a friend?	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
2 Do you ever the cooking at home?	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
3 Do you excuses if someone asks you to a big favour for them?	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
4 Do you ever negative comments about your friends' hair, clothes, etc?	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
5 Do you find it easy to friends?	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>

Give yourself three points for 'always', two for 'sometimes', one for 'never'. Turn the page to find out how nice you really are.

Everyday verbs 2

Get is a very common verb in English, but it is not always appropriate for talking about changes. Note also alternatives to get which can improve your style.

Go, not get

Go is used for changes in people's personality, appearance and physical abilities:
People go mad/bald/grey/blind/deaf.

Go is often used for sudden, usually negative, changes:
He was very embarrassed and his face went red.
Suddenly the sky went very dark and it started to rain.

Go can also be used for slower colour changes:
The pages of the book had gone yellow over the years.

B

Turn, not get

Turn often collocates with colours:

The sky turned gold as the sun set.

When the tomatoes turn red, the farmers pick them and sell them.

The news gave his mother such a shock that her hair turned white overnight.

Get and become

Get and become can often be used with the same collocations, but become is more formal and is therefore more appropriate in essays:

She gave up smoking when she became pregnant.

I would like to become involved in raising money for charity.

The same is true for collocations with adjectives such as angry, bored, excited, depressed, upset, impatient, violent:

He became depressed after his wife's death.

Become, not get, is used with the following: extinct, (un)popular, homeless, famous.
Our local baker's has become famous for its apple tarts.

Alternatives to get and become

She fell ill and was taken to hospital.

Everyone fell silent when they heard the shocking news.

As my father grew older, he spent less time working.

The noise grew louder and soon we realised it was a plane approaching.

Overusing and misusing get

Here are some sentences from students' essays where get is wrongly used.

sentences with get	more appropriate alternatives
I was able to get new friends.	I was able to make new friends.
A year ago he got a heart attack.	A year ago he had/suffered a heart attack.
If I get a child of my own one day ...	If I have a child of my own one day ...
I was getting crazy.	I was going crazy.
In June, I got a baby, James.	In June, I had a baby, James.

Exercises

8.1 Answer these questions using collocations from A and B.

- 1 What can happen to men as they get older? (Clue: Think of their hair.)
- 2 What can happen if you are embarrassed? (Clue: Think of your face.)
- 3 What can happen if you get bad news? (Clue: Think of your face or hair.)
- 4 What can happen to the pages of a newspaper after a long time?
- 5 What happens to strawberries as they ripen?
- 6 The poet John Milton lost his eyesight at the end of his life. What is another way of saying that?
- 7 The composer Beethoven lost his hearing at the end of his life. What is another way of saying that?
- 8 At the end of Shakespeare's play, Hamlet loses his mind. What is another way of saying that?
- 9 If it is about to rain, what might happen to the sky?

8.2 Look at C, D and E opposite. Correct these sentences.

- 1 Dinosaurs got extinct thousands of years ago.
- 2 When I get married, I'd like to get lots of children.
- 3 Janet fell depressed after failing her final exams.
- 4 Hamid has always dreamt of getting famous.
- 5 Would you be interested in growing involved in this project?
- 6 More people have got homeless this year than in any previous year.
- 7 My sister got a baby last week.
- 8 My grandfather got a heart attack last winter.

8.3 Replace each use of get with a verb from the box.

become fall become grow have make

As you get older, you'll begin to understand your parents better. Getting angry with them all the time doesn't help. You may not want to go to summer camp when none of your friends will be there, but your parents know you will soon get new friends there. You would all have gone on a family holiday together if your grandmother hadn't got ill, but surely you can understand why they don't want to leave her. You'll feel much more sympathetic to your parents' feelings when you get a child of your own!

8.4 Complete the collocations in these sentences.

- 1 I think I'd go if I had to put up with such a terrible boss!
- 2 It was a wonderful sunset. The sky gold and we sat on the terrace enjoying it.
- 3 Once upon a time the walls were probably cream but they have brown now and badly need repainting.
- 4 When I start grey, I'm definitely going to dye my hair.
- 5 As the headmaster walked into the hall, the children all silent.
- 6 The noise on the street louder and I looked out of the window to see what was happening.
- 7 My grandmother is a little afraid of ill while she is abroad.
- 8 I was so embarrassed that I bright red.

A Have

Note that these verbs collocate with have rather than any other verb (e.g. get or make).

collocation	example have an accident	Mr Grey had an accident last night but he's OK now.
have an argument / a row	We had an argument / a row about how to fix the car.
have a break	Let's have a break when you finish this exercise.
have a conversation/chat	I hope we'll have time to have a chat after the meeting.
have difficulty	The class had difficulty understanding what to do.
have a dream/nightmare	I had a nightmare last night.
have an experience	I had a frightening experience the other day.
have a feeling	I have a feeling that something is wrong.
have fun / a good time	I'm sure you'll have fun on the school trip.
have a look	The teacher wanted to have a look at what we were doing.
have a party	Let's have a party at the end of term.
have a problem / problems	Ask the teacher if you have problems with the exercise.
have a try/go	I'll explain what to do and then you can have a go/try .

B Take

Hi, Jean,

We're so glad we decided to take a holiday here. Yesterday we took a trip to the mountains. First we took a train to a little town and then we took a bus going to various villages and got off when we saw one that we took a liking to. Of course, we were taking a risk as we didn't know exactly what we'd find there. But we were lucky. Some kids took an interest in us and showed us some great places. We took a lot of photos.

Have you done anything yet about your job? I'd take a chance and leave if I were you. No point in staying somewhere where the boss has taken a dislike to you. Take advantage of being in London – there are always plenty of jobs there. You'll soon find something else, so take action, that's my advice! Good luck!

Ellen

C Pay

collocation	example
pay attention	You must pay attention to the teacher.
pay a compliment	I was trying to pay her a compliment but she misunderstood.
pay your (last) respects	At a funeral people pay their last respects to the person who has died.
pay tribute [formal]	When Jack retired, his boss made a speech paying tribute to all he had done for the company.

There are other common verbs in English which have strong and possibly surprising collocations. Notice any that you find with, for example, break, fall, run and take.

Exercises

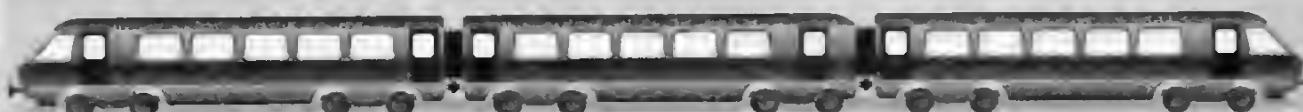

9.1 Complete the questions using collocations from A opposite.

- 1 You want a friend to look at a letter you have written before you send it.
YOU: Could you ?

- 11 We need to make / get / take action immediately!
- 12 I had / got / took a feeling that he was trying to hide something from me.

9.3 Which collocations in this text could be replaced by collocations with take instead of the verbs used?

Next time you go on a trip to the coast, why not get the train?

Why suffer endless delays in long traffic jams? And why run risks when you're travelling – travel by train and arrive safely. What's more, if you decide to have a holiday in the capital city, you'll have a more relaxing time if you go by rail. Or why not pay a surprise visit to an old friend during an off-peak time? - 3 What is the woman using?
- 4 What is the man wearing?
- 5 What is the man carrying?
- 6 What is the man using?

11.3 Correct the nine collocation errors in this paragraph.

Last year I got a new job and started gaining a lot more money. I realised I could afford to use more money on my holiday than I usually do and decided to pass a month in Australia. I knew it would be hot there and so I wouldn't need to carry warm clothes with me. In fact, I used a t-shirt and jeans all the time I was there. I carried a hat all the time too, of course, to protect me from the sun. It was fantastic there. I passed a week sightseeing in Sydney and then stayed the rest of the time travelling round the country. I even did my lifelong ambition of stroking a koala.

11.4 Change the underlined words so that each sentence has the opposite meaning.

- 1 The Democratic Party lost the election.
- 2 The ruling power has lost control of the situation.
- 3 Our team was defeated in the match.
- 4 I spent a lot of money last month.
- 5 Our company made a loss last year.

11.5 Complete these questions. Then answer them.

- 1 Where did you your last holiday?
- 2 How much money did you last week?
- 3 What do you always with you when you go out?
- 4 Have you ever a trophy?
- 5 What aim would you particularly like to in life?

If someone uses a metaphor, they use a word in a way that is slightly different from its basic meaning. For example, the first meaning of sunny is connected with the weather, so we talk about a sunny day. However, sunny can also be used in expressions like a sunny smile, the children's sunny faces to mean happy; in these collocations sunny is used in a metaphorical way. Metaphors are more common in written than spoken English and often have the effect of sounding quite poetic.

Light and dark

Light in English is associated with happiness. So a face shines with pleasure and eyes shine with excitement or delight. If someone's face lights up or their eyes light up, they show that they suddenly feel happy. If an atmosphere lightens or a mood lightens, it becomes more relaxed or cheerful than it was.

Darkness is associated with unhappiness and negative feelings. Dark thoughts are gloomy or sinister ones and dark days or dark times are unpleasant times to live through. If someone's face darkens or their eyes darken or someone's expression darkens, then we know that that person is unhappy, often because they are feeling angry.

B

Water

collocation	example	comment
ideas flow, conversation flows	It was a very successful meeting. The ideas flowed.	Flow suggests that things progress easily, without effort.
a flood / floods of tears, tears streaming down someone's face	The little girl was in floods of tears. Tears were streaming down her face.	Both of these metaphors about tears suggest the girl is crying a lot.
people pour/stream somewhere	People poured out of the hall at the end of the lecture.	Pour and stream suggest lots of people moving smoothly.
people trickle	People trickled into the concert hall.	Trickle suggests a few people moving slowly.
a stream of visitors/ traffic	There was a stream of traffic outside our room all night.	Stream suggests continuous movement.

Fire and heat

Words associated with fire and heat often suggest anger in English. A heated debate, a heated discussion or a heated conversation is one in which people disagree in an angry way with each other. If you say that someone has a fiery temper, you mean that they often get suddenly angry. The word flare means show a bright light in the dark. If you say tempers flared, you mean that people became angry with each other. Similarly violence flares up and troubles flare up. These all mean that problems which existed in the past suddenly become serious again.

However, not all metaphors relating to fire suggest anger. If you feel very embarrassed, your cheeks burn with embarrassment. A blaze is a very bright fire. We talk about a blaze of glory or a blaze of publicity meaning there is a lot of it and it is spectacular.

When you are reading English, try to notice metaphorical uses of language. This will help you to see how familiar words can be used in extra, interesting ways.

Talking about the weather

It's great here. Have had unbroken sunshine¹ ever since we arrived. We're having a wonderful time – though in the middle of the day it's just too scorching hot² to do anything but lie on the beach soaking up the sunshine³. This is the life!

Anna

² extremely hot

³ enjoying the sunshine

It's been pouring with rain all day. In fact I've never seen such torrential rain⁴! It's freezing cold in the tent – we all got soaked to the skin⁵. Every half hour we look out of the tent hoping for a break in the clouds. In vain! We're going to a hotel next year!

It rained heavily all day yesterday but it's dry at the moment. There's thick cloud, though, and it certainly looks like rain⁶. Quite a strong wind is blowing too! Am glad we brought warm clothes!

⁴ heavy rain ⁵ very wet ⁶ looks as if it is going to rain

Weather conditions

weather deteriorates [opposite: improves]	The weather is likely to deteriorate later on today.	Deteriorate is quite formal – the weather is getting worse is more informal.
thick/dense fog patches of fog/mist a blanket of fog [literary] fog/mist comes down [opposite: lifts]	There is thick fog on the motorway. There are patches of fog on the east coast but these should lift by midday.	Patches of fog/mist are small areas of fog/mist, whereas a blanket of fog/mist is thicker and more extensive.
strong sun [opposite: weak]	Avoid going on the beach at midday when the sun is strongest .
heavy rain (NOT strong rain) driving rain	Road conditions are difficult because of the driving rain .	driving rain = rain falling fast and heavily heavy/fresh/crisp/thick/ driving snow	The snow is lovely and crisp this morning.	crisp snow = snow that is fresh and hard hard frost	There will be a hard frost tonight.	opposite of a hard frost = a light frost (NOT a soft frost)
high/strong/light/biting winds the wind picks up [opposite: dies down] the wind blows/whistles	The wind was light this morning but it's picking up now and will be very strong by the evening. The wind was whistling through the trees.	biting winds = very cold winds If the wind picks up, it gets stronger.

Extreme weather

FREAK¹ STORMS DEVASTATE SW

Yesterday freak weather conditions hit² the south-west of England. Gale-force winds³ caused a lot of damage to property. A number of buildings were destroyed, roofs were torn off and fences were blown down. Several rivers burst their banks⁴.

¹ very unusual or unexpected

³ extremely strong winds

² struck, badly affected

⁴ rivers flooded

Travel, journey, trip

Look at these e-mails and note the different collocations for travel, journey and trip.

Jane,
Have you made your travel arrangements for the sales conference yet? If you want a good travel agent, I can recommend Atlas World. They specialise in business travel. Their number is 2587996. They're very helpful.
Rickie

Hi Mel,
I'm finally here after an extremely tiring journey! The flight was three hours late, they lost my luggage, then there were no taxis at the airport. I hope my return journey¹ is better! I'm at the Hotel Rex, room 1305, tel: 987745. Give me a call.
Simon

Hi Karen,
I know next week is a business trip, but you must do some sightseeing too while you're here. I suggest we take a day trip to Canamuca on the Sunday. It's about two hours by car, and we can take a boat trip to the island in the middle of the lake and have lunch there. Looking forward to seeing you on Monday. Safe journey².
David

² said to someone who is about to make a journey

Janine,
I got some travel brochures with details of camping trips. Want to meet for lunch to look at them? One of them is in Chile, but it's a long overnight journey from the capital to get there, so maybe we should look nearer home? Nice to dream of holidays during work time!

Writing about the landscape

From my room I look out over the surrounding countryside. It's very different from the familiar landscape I see from the windows at home. At home it's a gentle landscape¹ with open fields². Here it's a bleak landscape with rocky mountains in the distance.

² fields uninterrupted by woods or houses

Yesterday we followed a path down to the lake. As we turned a corner, we caught a glimpse of³ a kingfisher standing in the water. John tried to take a picture⁴ of it but it caught sight of us and flew off. A little further on we rounded a bend⁵ and St John's Abbey came into view. The Abbey fell into ruin⁶ about three hundred years ago. Although it lies in ruins, it is well worth seeing as it stands in a dramatic setting on a steep slope beside a fast-flowing river with mountains towering⁷ above it.

The cottage is in some wonderful unspoilt countryside⁸ on the edge of a dense forest⁹. Unfortunately the trees block the view of the snow-covered mountains. It has a little garden with a stream at the end of it. The stream winds¹⁰ through the forest. They wanted to build a timber factory here but the local people said that it would destroy the countryside and, fortunately, their campaign to protect the environment succeeded.

⁸ countryside that has not been changed by industry or modern buildings

⁹ thick forest ¹⁰ makes lots of bends, doesn't flow in a straight line

Exercises

15.1 Look at A. Complete the collocations to fit these pictures.

- 1 Near the lake there is an old house that ruin about a hundred years ago. It stands in a lovely landscape, surrounded by fields.
- 2 We a footpath along the river for about three kilometres. In the distance there were snow-..... mountains.
- 3 We walked through a forest; it was very dark among the trees.

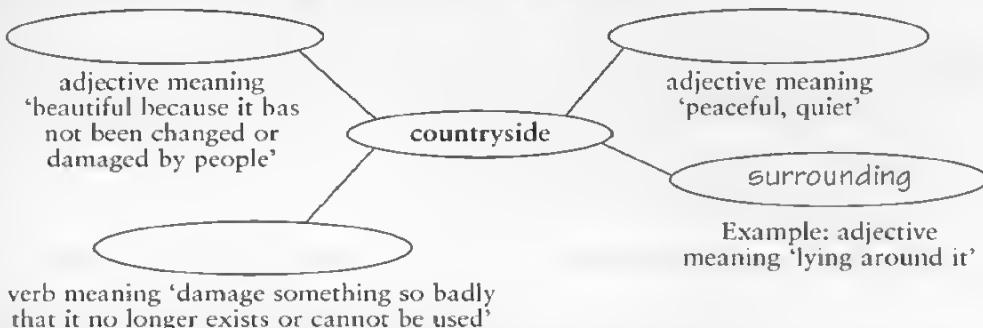

15.2 Correct the underlined collocation errors in this paragraph.

A chain of snowy mountains runs down the east of the country. The Wassa River, the country's biggest, dances slowly from the northern mountains to the sea. Even in summer it is a sour landscape, with its dark, stony mountains and its cold streams. But for me it is the family landscape of my childhood and I am happy that the government has decided to guard this environment. It is a dramatic set which is a lot worth visiting for anyone who likes spectacle views.

15.3 Choose the correct collocation.

- 1 We made / took / put a lot of photographs because it was such a beautiful day.
- 2 As I returned / turned the corner I made / caught / took a glimpse of the house through the trees.
- 3 A long sanded / sandy beach reached / ran / stretched for miles in front of us.
- 4 Unfortunately, the new hotel blocks / jams / stops the view of the castle.

15.4 Complete this collocation web for countryside.

15.5 Replace the words in brackets in each sentence with one word which collocates with the underlined word.

- 1 It's a beautiful town and the countryside (which is all around it) is even more beautiful.
- 2 The tower (is the most important and visible thing on) the landscape. From the top of the tower, you get a view (which allows you to see a very wide stretch) of the surrounding area.
- 3 There are lovely beaches (with very few people on them).
- 4 We travelled through some scenery (which was extremely exciting and beautiful).
- 5 From the windows of our villa we had views (which were continuous, without any obstacles,) of the lakes and mountains.

Describing towns and cities for visitors

Look at these extracts from a magazine article about tourist cities.

The city skyline is a wonderful mix of old and new, and the city itself has a lot of busy, narrow cobbled¹ streets. The old town is a conservation area and it has a lot of quaint² old buildings dating back to the city's foundation in the 1500s.

¹ made of a regular pattern of stones

² attractive because of being unusual and especially old-fashioned

Doradella Street has a lot of upmarket³ shops and rather pricey⁴, sometimes overpriced, restaurants, but not far away is the Genasia district, where you'll find restaurants which offer good value and a more relaxed atmosphere.

³ for people with expensive tastes

⁴ expensive, in a negative sense

Royal Avenue runs from north to south, and is lined with shops. Behind it, the streets are full of lively bars and fashionable clubs. The pavement cafés and shops of Luna Square are pleasant but very expensive.

As you drive into the city, the tree-lined avenues of the residential areas are soon replaced by the high-rise flats of the inner city⁵. Then come the imposing buildings of the Parliament and government departments.

⁵ central part of a city where poorer people live and where there are often social problems

Towns and cities and their problems

Here are some descriptions of the more negative aspects of towns and cities.

Some of the inner-city areas are an urban wasteland¹ and are somewhat dangerous for visitors. In fact some streets have become no-go² areas, with high crime. Many streets are strewn with litter and there are numerous run-down³ buildings. There are some deprived⁴ areas round the city centre with huge social problems. The industrial zones which lie on the edge of the city are grey and polluted.

¹ a city area which is empty and in a bad condition

² where the police and other authorities are afraid to enter

³ in very bad condition

⁴ not having the things that are necessary for a pleasant life, e.g. enough money, good living conditions

Triope is a sprawling⁵ city with bumper-to-bumper⁶ traffic all day long. The exhaust fumes can be a nightmare. The volume of traffic has increased in recent years and the incessant roar⁷ of trucks and buses makes the city centre an extremely noisy place.

The comfortable suburbs⁸ away from the city centre contrast sharply with the poor shanty towns⁹ one sees on the way to the airport.

⁵ spread over a large area (slightly negative)

⁶ so many cars and so close that they are almost touching each other

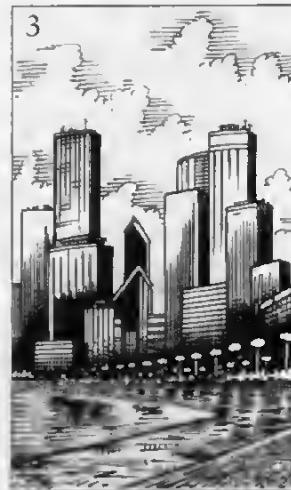

⁷ very loud noise which never stops

⁹ very poor houses made of discarded materials (e.g. tin, cardboard, plastic, etc.)

People: physical appearance

Words describing people's physical appearance

Read these quotations taken from essays where students were asked to describe their family members.

My father has a round face, with chubby¹ cheeks and a droopy² moustache.

My mother has a more pointed face and a straight nose. My younger sister is more like my father. She has an oval³ face and an upturned nose. My older sister is like a model. She has a slim figure and a slender⁴ waist. She has a lovely complexion⁵ and beautiful sleek⁶, shoulder-length hair, and she's always immaculately groomed⁷. I feel so ordinary next to her – I've got coarse⁸ hair and rather broad hips, but she always says I look nice.

- ¹ fat in a pleasant and attractive way
- ² long and hanging down heavily
- ³ shaped like an egg
- ⁴ attractively slim (a rather formal, poetic word)

- ⁵ the natural colour and quality of a person's skin
- ⁶ smooth and shiny
- ⁷ her appearance is always tidy and looked after with great care
- ⁸ rough, and not smooth or soft

My father and my two older brothers are all well-built⁹ with broad shoulders. My father is going bald but he still has a very youthful appearance for someone who is over forty. My brothers both have thick hair and bushy¹⁰ eyebrows. My younger brother is only two – he's just a tiny tot¹¹, but he's very cute. My mother's side of the family mostly have dark hair – in fact my mother had jet-black hair¹² when she was younger, before she went grey – but on my father's side some have fair hair and some have ginger¹³ hair.

- ⁹ have strong, attractive bodies
- ¹⁰ very thick
- ¹¹ a small child

- ¹² completely black
- ¹³ a red or orange-brown colour; used of people's hair

More collocations describing appearance

A short, dumpy woman was selling flowers at a stall on the street corner. [short and quite fat woman; used more often of women than of men]

A portly gentleman answered the door. [fat and round; usually used of middle-aged and older men]

A lanky youth was standing at the street corner. [tall and thin and tending to move awkwardly]

I wouldn't like people to see me with dishevelled hair and dirty clothes. [very untidy; used of people's hair and appearance]

He bears a striking resemblance to his father. [looks remarkably like]

The lady who entered the room had a very striking appearance. [unusual appearance, in a positive, attractive sense]

TIP

Sometimes words are very restricted in what they can collocate with. The colour adjectives blonde, ginger and auburn¹ are only used of people's hair (not, for example, their clothes or other objects). When a word has restricted collocations, make a special note in your vocabulary notebook.

18.1 Put the words from the box into the 'fat' or 'thin' column, then answer the questions.

portly lanky slender dumpy slim chubby

'fat' words	'thin' words

- 1 Which words could be used to describe someone's waist?
- 2 Which word is likely to be used of a rather physically awkward young person?
- 3 Which word means 'fat but in a pleasant way'?
- 4 Which word is more likely to be used to describe a man rather than a woman?
- 5 Which word is more likely to be used to describe a woman rather than a man?

18.2 Look at B. Then match the adjectives in the first box below with the nouns in the second box.

bushy tiny oval striking broad droopy chubby dishevelled cheeks moustache shoulders hair eyebrows resemblance tot face

18.3 Fill the gaps with appropriate collocations. You are sometimes given the first letter(s).

I hadn't seen Will since he was just a (1) t..... t....., so I was surprised to see that he was now a tall young man. He was (2) im..... gr....., smart and elegant. He was with a pretty young woman with (3) j.....-black, (4) shoulder..... hair and a (5) l..... com..... . She could have been a model, she had such a (6) str..... ap..... . He had his arm round her (7) s..... wa..... . With them was a (8) po..... g....., who looked as though he enjoyed good food, and who was probably her father. When I introduced myself to Will, he smiled. 'Of course, I remember you,' he said. 'You used to work with my father. But you haven't aged at all! You have a much more (9) y..... a..... than my father now does. Dad has (10) very grey.' I felt very pleased when he said that; he obviously didn't notice I was beginning to (11) bald. Everyone likes to think they look young when they get older.

18.4 Use the words from the box to fill the gaps to give contrasting meanings.

round coarse upturned fair pointed straight dark sleek

- 1 Her hair's not , it's quite, in fact it's almost black.
- 2 She has an nose but her brother has a nose.
- 3 Her mother has a face but her father has a face.
- 4 My hair is so and ugly; Sally's is so and lovely.

Family relationships

Sociologists talk about nuclear and extended families. A nuclear family is just parents and children. An extended family is a wider network including grandparents, cousins, etc.

Close relatives are those like parents, children, brothers or sisters. Distant relatives are people like second cousins [the children of a cousin of your mother or father] or distant cousins.

Close/immediate family refers to people who are your nearest blood relatives:
I don't have much close/immediate family.

She's a distant cousin of mine; she's not a blood relative.

Close can also be used to mean that the relationship is a very strong one:
We are a very close family. or We are a very close-knit family.

These adjectives also collocate with family:

loving, respectable, dysfunctional [unhappy, not working in a healthy way]

Simon came from a respectable family, so Mary's parents felt happy about the marriage.

Someone's late husband/wife is one who has died.

An estranged [formal] husband/wife is one who lives in a different place and has a difficult relationship with their husband/wife. They may be having a trial separation and may eventually decide to get a divorce. In some cases it can be a bitter/acrimonious divorce. [full of anger, arguments and bad feeling]

A person's ex-husband/ex-wife is a man/woman that she/he used to be married to.

Children whose parents have separated or divorced are said to come from a broken home. If their family is a strong, loving one it can be called a stable home. If it is a poor one, not having the things that are necessary for a pleasant life, such as enough money, food or good living conditions, it can be called a deprived home.

A confirmed bachelor is a man who seems to have no intention of ever marrying.

Exercises

19.1 Fill the gaps in this old man's memories about his life with words from A.

I grew up in an (1) family as my grandparents and a couple of aunts and an uncle, who was a (2) bachelor, lived with us. We saw a lot of our (3) relatives as well as our close ones. I think that families tended to be much more (4) then – we talked to each other more and did things together more. I'm sure there are far more (5) families now than there used to be – you know, where parents hardly spend any time with their children, or with each other – and a lot of parents who are divorced. My (6) wife, who died two years ago, used to say that it is not fair on children to let them grow up in (7) homes.

19.2 Look at B. Correct the six collocation errors in this young woman's plans for the future.

Charles and I are hoping to begin a family soon. We both want to get lots of children. Ideally, I'd like to have my first baby next year, when I'll be 25. My sister is waiting a baby now. It's coming next month. She's going to be a sole parent and it'll be hard for her to grow up a child on her own.

19.3 Match the two parts of these collocations.

1 apply for	cousin
2 get	separation
3 estranged	custody
4 nuclear	home
5 provide for	wife
6 distant	family
7 set up	your family
8 trial	a divorce

19.4 Answer these questions.

- 1 Who do you have in your immediate family?
- 2 Do you have much contact with your distant relatives? If so, when?
- 3 Where did your parents first set up home?
- 4 Which would most children prefer to live in, and why, a stable home or a deprived home?
- 5 What collocation means the same as to be pregnant?
- 6 Can dysfunctional families also be respectable ones?
- 7 What can be put before the words wife and husband to indicate that they are no longer married to someone?
- 8 What is a more formal alternative for give custody?

19.5 Write a paragraph about your own family using as many as possible of the collocations from this unit.

More than just good friends

A love story

I fell madly in love with Anton from the moment I met him. It was certainly love at first sight. I knew at once that he was the love of my life but at first I was not sure if my love was returned or not. Within a few days, however, he had told me that he was desperately in love with me too. A couple of weeks later, we realised that we wanted to make a commitment to each other and, when Anton asked me to marry him, I immediately accepted his proposal. I'm sure we will always love each other unconditionally¹. Neither of us would ever consider having an affair² with someone else.

¹ love that is total and does not change regardless of what you or the object of your love does

² have a sexual relationship with someone outside marriage

Feelings and emotions

Feeling happy

Look at these messages in cards sent to Brian and Helen on their wedding day. Note the collocations in bold.

Brian and Helen,

Have a great day. I know you'll be blissfully¹ happy together.

To Brian and Helen –

Best wishes to the happy couple²,

Jack

Dear Helen and Brian,

We hope marriage brings you lasting happiness.

Jake and Maria

Brian and Helen,

With love and best wishes on this happy occasion.

Uncle Eric

² a standard way of referring to a newly married couple

Feeling sad and upset

In these letters to the problem page of Good Life magazine, useful collocations are in bold.

Dear Good Life,

My grandmother died six months ago and I've felt desperately sad and deeply depressed ever since. Is this normal for a 26-year-old?

Karen Young

Dear Good Life,

I felt a great sadness when I had to say goodbye to my friends at the end of our three years in university. The farewell party was such a sad occasion. What can I do? My life feels empty without them.

Jo Hart

Dear Good Life,

I was bitterly¹ disappointed recently when a friend let me down badly. How can I express my disappointment to her without appearing silly or childish? I'm not very good at showing my feelings.

Yolanda Reed

Dear Good Life,

I failed an exam recently and it was a huge disappointment to me. Now I'm feeling increasingly anxious that I'll fail the next one. In fact I'm worried sick. What should I do?

David Wright

¹deeply disappointed is also common

Anger and emotion

There is mounting [growing] anger over the new tax, along with widespread condemnation of it [a lot of people in many different places have condemned it]. It has especially aroused feelings of resentment among professional people.

I lost my temper and was seething with anger when she called me an idiot. [I suddenly became very angry]

Divorce is a highly emotional experience for all those involved. It's hard not to give a pure emotional response. The emotional involvement of both parties is intense, and the emotional impact on children is huge. [these are rather formal collocations]

Jack was an emotional wreck [informal: in a bad emotional state] after his girlfriend finished with him.

This page gives a number of synonyms for very/really/terribly and for big words which learners sometimes use too much. Make a special note of them.

Exercises

21.1 How many words meaning very or extremely can you remember from the opposite page? Use them instead of very or extremely in these sentences.

- 1 I was very disappointed. (give two answers)
- 2 Jess is a very emotional individual.
- 3 She felt extremely sad.
- 4 Her childhood was extremely happy.
- 5 I was extremely worried.
- 6 She felt very depressed.

21.2 Improve the style of these e-mails by replacing the underlined words with collocations from the opposite page.

1 Dear James
I have to tell you that there is general condemnation and growing anger over the news that the company pension scheme is to be closed down. The issue has brought out strong feelings among the staff. I am personally becoming more and more anxious that the situation might get out of control, and ask you to act immediately.
With best wishes,
Joanne Withers
Staff representative

2 Dear Joanne,
I too am full of anger over this pension question. I tried to show my disappointment over it to the Board, but they simply dismissed the issue and that just made me extremely angry. I feel very let down. I shall continue to do what I can.
Yours sincerely,
James Horgan (Resource Manager)

3 Gareth,
You probably know I didn't get the job I applied for. It's a very big disappointment.
Christina

4 Dear Winston,
I felt a big sadness when I heard of Patrick's death.
Will you be going to the funeral?
It will be such a sad thing, won't it?
Pamela

21.3 Answer the questions.

- 1 Give two examples of a happy occasion.
- 2 What phrase can refer to two people who have just got married?
- 3 What adjective collocates with happiness to mean 'which continues for many years'?
- 4 What other noun meaning 'effect' can collocate with emotional?

Talking about types of food

In each of these conversations, useful collocations are in bold.

Tom: Kids eat far too much junk food.

Nelly: Yeah, but it's hard to get them to eat nourishing meals¹. They think they're boring.
¹ meals which make you healthy and strong

Fran: Have you tried the new supermarket yet?

Jim: Yes. The fresh produce² is excellent, and they have a big organic food section.

Fran: Mm, yes. I actually think their ready meals³ are good too.

6 Who is dying of hunger?

23.4 Replace the underlined words with suitable collocations from the opposite page.

- Foods which are changed or treated as part of an industrial operation may damage our health in the long term.
- Some people always have three full, satisfying meals a day, but I prefer a large breakfast and then a small meal around midday and a more sizeable meal in the evening.
- There are some overpriced restaurants in the city centre, but down at the beach, there are some nice, not too expensively priced ones.
- On my birthday my parents took me out for a big, good meal. They wanted to go for a very high quality meal but I said I'd prefer something more ordinary.
- Iced tea is a drink that cools you and makes you feel less tired on a hot day, and is probably better for you than non-alcoholic drinks such as cola or lemonade.
- Let me take you out to dinner on your birthday. Or would you prefer a meal prepared at home? I could make dinner for you at my place.

ATalking about films and books

When a new book or film comes out, newspapers will review it. The people who review the book/film are called book reviewers / film critics and they write book/film reviews. If they don't like a book/film they give it a bad review. We can say that a novel or film is based on a true story. We say that a book/film captures an atmosphere or that a book/film deals with a topic. We talk about the opening/closing scenes of a film and the opening/closing chapters of a book. We talk about the beginning and end of a book/film (NOT start and finish). If everything works out well for the central characters, we say that the book/film has a happy ending. You may recommend a book/film that you enjoyed to a friend. If a lot of people have enjoyed it, it is highly recommended.

BJust about films and acting

I've never had any desire to go on the stage¹ myself but I'd love to produce a film. I think historical dramas work particularly well on the big screen² and I'd love to make a film about Vikings in Britain. There'd be plenty of opportunities to use special effects³ during battle scenes. I'd want the male lead⁴ to be played by Hugh Grant, while Nicole Kidman could have the female lead. Sean Penn could play the role of a Viking warrior and I'd like Judi Dench to take on a cameo role⁵. I'm sure that, as always, she would give an excellent performance. My dream is to make a film that would be nominated for an Oscar⁶. Of course, I'd also like it to be an immediate box-office hit⁷, playing to full houses⁸ worldwide.

⁵ small but special part

² the cinema

⁶ put on the official list of people in the film world

³ powerful visual effects, often created using technology

⁷ who may receive a special prize (an Oscar)

⁴ main male part

⁸ extremely successful with audiences

⁸ cinemas/theatres with no empty seats

Other strong collocations are cast a film [select the actors for a film], star in a film, shoot a film, make a film.

CJust about books

collocation	example
be engrossed/absorbed in a book	Sal was so engrossed/absorbed in her book that she didn't hear me.
compulsive reading	Many people find articles about the private lives of film stars compulsive reading. [so interesting you can't stop reading] bedtime reading	I don't think a horror story makes good bedtime reading.
an easy read	Detective stories are good for train journeys as they're an easy read.
take out / borrow / return / renew a library book	You can take out/borrow six library books at one time. You should return your library book tomorrow. I'm going to renew my library book for another week.
flick/skim through a book	Mona flicked/skimmed through the book without reading it in detail.
beautifully written	The book is beautifully written – I highly recommend it.

Critics review books and films, NOT criticise them. To criticise a book or film means to say negative things about it.

Remember that you watch television, NOT see television, but you can see or watch a film or programme on television. We usually say see a film at the cinema.

Exercises

24.1 Use collocations from A opposite instead of the underlined words in this conversation. The conversation has no errors, but the changes will improve it.

Matthew: Have you read that new book that has just appeared about Ireland?
Lorna: No, I don't go to bookshops and I don't read articles discussing new books. What's it about?
Matthew: Well, it concerns the Irish War of Independence. It's very authentic and it manages to give the atmosphere of Ireland at the beginning of the 20th century.
Lorna: Is it just historical facts, then?
Matthew: No, the main people are two brothers who have different opinions about the war and this divides their family. In the first chapters they're happy and do everything together, but by the last chapter they have become enemies.
Lorna: Mm, it sounds a bit depressing to me.
Matthew: Well, it certainly doesn't finish in a happy way, but I liked it, and it's recommended very much by all the critics.
Lorna: So, a book with a pleasant start and a sad finish. Not for me, I'm afraid. I prefer the opposite.

Describing music

Look at these music reviews and note the collocations in bold.

Bloom Music from the Centre of the Earth
(Palm records 234655)

New arrivals on the rock music scene, Bloom are already making a big impact. If you're looking for background music, then this is not for you, but if you want music to blast out from¹ your hi-fi and annoy the neighbours, then Bloom's debut² album, with tracks from their live performance at the Delaya Stadium, may be just what you want.

Johnny MacRoy Songs we loved
(Kase Phonograph 488792)

For fans of easy listening³ and catchy⁴ tunes, this is all you need. In fact it's so relaxing you might just fall asleep. MacRoy gives a sentimental performance of these old love songs. At 47, he's not exactly a pop idol but his adoring fans will love it.

The Divide Amphibian
(Fono Corp 3321978)

This is a rock symphony, an extraordinary piece of music. After their massive hit in 2004 with Megalith, their record company has released this CD hoping for another big hit. The band themselves wrote the music. They have a huge following and are due to go on tour later this year.

The Oxbridge Symphonia British classics old and new (Rotor Records 775537)

Haunting melodies and the occasional virtuoso⁵ performance from its two soloists mark this collection of popular British classical music, which aims to capture a wider audience for the classics and to promote Britain's musical heritage. Roger Crow conducts the orchestra. Crow himself composed two of the pieces, hence the CD title. Good birthday present for your uncle and aunt. But if you're a real classical music lover, save your money.

BUST-OUT WITH JOLA V BLAZE MAMA
(Presto 58843)

Bust-out's new double CD features⁶ Jola V, a young rap⁷ artist from Miami. Jola used to be with Chicago hip-hop band Frenzy, but went solo in 2004. The band have remixed⁸ four tracks from earlier albums and Jola's up-tempo⁹ numbers just add to the excitement.

- ¹ sound extremely loud
- ² presented to the public for the first time
- ³ music that is not serious or difficult
- ⁴ pleasant and easy to remember

- ⁵ extremely skilful
- ⁶ includes as an important part
- ⁷ rock music in which rhymed lyrics are spoken over rhythm tracks
- ⁸ made a new version of a musical track
- ⁹ played at a fast beat

Playing music

I saw Martin strumming a guitar the other day. I didn't know he could play.

He can't. He just likes people to think he can. He's got no musical talent whatsoever.

I've taken up the guitar. I've had three lessons so far.

That's great! I love live music. What can you play?

Well, the first week was all about tuning the instrument. I've got to play a piece for my teacher next week.

Exercises

25.1 Change the underlined words using collocations from A so that each sentence has the opposite meaning.

- 1 The band's last CD was a minor hit. (give two answers)
- 2 There are some great slow numbers on this new CD.
- 3 The band has a small following of dedicated fans.
- 4 Music was playing quietly on a CD player when I entered the house.
- 5 Maria Plurosa gave a poor performance of Heder's violin concerto last night.

25.2 Correct the eight collocation errors in this paragraph. The first one is done for you.

For all folk music ~~tikkers~~, Johnny Coppin's new CD, The Long Harvest, published last week, will be a great addition to their collection. Bob recently got solo after five years with the folk band Blue Mountain. He is proud of the musical inheritance of his native Kentucky. Tracks 3 and 7 comprise his old friend Wiz Carter on guitar. With this CD Coppin says he hopes to control a wider audience for folk music. His excellent living performance at the recent Lockwood Folk Festival suggests he has a good chance of succeeding. He makes a tour next month. Don't miss him.

- 2 ... music that is not complicated or difficult to listen to?
- 3 ... a pop musician who is a very big star with many fans?
- 4 ... a type of performer who speaks rhymed lyrics over rhythm tracks?
- 5 ... to tighten or loosen the strings of an instrument till they make the correct note?
- 6 ... a way of playing a guitar by moving your fingers across the strings?

25.4 Complete these sentences with suitable collocations.

- 1 Hundreds of fans were waiting for Shamira to come out of the concert hall.
- 2 The orchestra gave a wonderful of some popular classics.
- 3 It was a very tune; you only had to hear it once and you were singing it.
- 4 I'd love to a musical instrument but I don't have time.
- 5 It is one of those melodies which you never forget, so beautiful, yet so sad.
- 6 There's a lot of musical in the family; all the children play an instrument.

Now, for twenty thousand dollars, who wrote Beethoven's Fifth Symphony?

ADo, play and go

The table below gives examples of common sporting collocations with do, play and go.

You do	gymnastics, judo, weightlifting, aerobics, yoga, wrestling, circuit training, archery, athletics
You play	games, badminton, billiards, hockey, bowls, rugby, golf, (table) tennis, cricket, baseball, chess, darts, cards, dominoes
You go	fishing, skiing, bowling, cycling, skateboarding, surfing, snowboarding, hang-gliding, climbing, hill walking, sailing, jogging, swimming

You can also say you go to aerobics/judo/yoga/karate – this means that you go to a class in this sport.

Learners often make mistakes with some common collocations connected with sport. Make a point of learning these commonly used collocations.

- You do or play sport. (NOT make sport)
- You do exercises. (NOT make exercises)
- You play computer or other games. (NOT do games)
- You have/play a game of cards. (NOT make a game)
- You go skiing. (NOT make skiing)
- You do activities. (NOT make or practise activities)

If you are a serious sportsperson, you will certainly practise your sport, but that has a specific meaning, which is to do something again and again in order to get better at it, in other words to train. If you are a footballer you might practise taking a penalty, for example.

BWinning and losing

Sportsmen and sportswomen want to win matches, not lose matches. But you can't win all the time! Sometimes a team or player deserves to win, but gets narrowly defeated/beaten.

Before they go in for / enter a competition, athletes train hard. They probably attend/do at least five training sessions a week. They are likely to put up a fight to gain/get a place in the next stage/round of the competition. Of course, a sportsperson's ultimate aim is to break the world record in their sport. If they succeed, they set a new world record and become a world record holder. They are sure to come up against fierce/intense competition as they try to achieve their ambitions. Sometimes they are satisfied if they just achieve a personal best.

Some sports people so desperately want to win that they take drugs to enhance their performance. This will be discovered when they fail a drugs test.

CFootball

You can play or have a (football) match / game (of football). It might be a home or an away match depending on whether you're playing on your team's home ground or not.

The aim is to score a goal. Players may tackle an opponent to try to take possession of the ball¹. If you tackle in an illegal way, you foul your opponent. This will lead to the referee blowing his whistle and an opponent taking a penalty or taking a free kick. If someone isn't playing very well the manager may decide to drop the player from the team or bring on a substitute². Both teams hope that they will have taken the lead³ by half-time.

New Sports Club Opening Next Week

You can judo! You can badminton!
You can swimming! You can weight lifting!
You can circuit training! You can table tennis!
You can skateboarding! You can even darts!
In fact, you can almost any sport you can think of. So join now!

26.2 Look at B and C. Make ten collocations by matching a word from the box on the left with a word or phrase from the box on the right.

personal	set	the lead	a competition blow	achieve	best	your performance
bring on	train	a substitute	a drugs test fail	enhance	a record	hard enter	take	a whistle	your ambitions

26.3 Look at the error warning. There are six verb + noun errors in this e-mail. Find and correct them.

Hi, Jose,

Do you fancy coming on a sporting weekend with me next month? It sounds great – would make a change from playing computer games. You can make lots of different activities. You could even do fishing, I think. You can't go skiing at this time of year but you can make water skiing, if you like. Everyone has to make general exercises first thing in the morning and then you can make whatever sport you like, more or less. I've never practised badminton so I think I'm going to do that. Then in the afternoon I'm looking forward to the chance to practise my tennis serve with their professional coach. Please try to come!

Verb collocations referring to illnesses and injuries

In most everyday situations you can use the verbs get or have with the names of illnesses, but you will improve your written style if you can use these alternative verbs and expressions.

verb	common collocations	example
catch	a cold, the flu, a chill, pneumonia	I got soaking wet and caught a cold .
contract [formal]	a disease, malaria, typhoid	Uncle Jess contracted malaria while he was working in Africa.
develop [formal]	(lung/breast) cancer, diabetes, AIDS, arthritis, Alzheimer's disease	My grandfather developed Alzheimer's disease and could no longer remember things or recognise people.
suffer from	asthma, hay fever, backache	She has suffered from asthma all her life.
have an attack of	bronchitis, asthma, hay fever, diarrhoea	She had an attack of hay fever and was sneezing non-stop.
be diagnosed with	(lung/breast) cancer, AIDS, leukaemia, autism	He was diagnosed with lung cancer and died a year later.
suffer / sustain [formal]	(major/minor/serious/head) injuries	The driver sustained serious head injuries in the crash.

Fitness and good health

Look at this magazine questionnaire and note the collocations relating to fitness.

Are you in good shape?

- 1 Do you take regular vigorous exercise?
- 2 Do you eat a balanced diet?
- 3 Do you care about healthy eating?
- 4 Do you follow a personal fitness programme?
- 5 Do you always stick to your programme?
- 6 In general, have you kept fit over the last two years?

Talking about sickness and pain

My poor friend Gina is terminally ill. [She will die soon.] She suffers excruciating/unbearable pain most of the time. Apparently it's an incurable illness that runs in her family.

Paul annoys everyone at work. He takes days off even for the most trivial/minor ailments. It's a serious illness, but probably not life-threatening.

For a few days it was acutely/intensely painful, but now it's just a dull ache. My doctor prescribed me some tablets and they relieved/alleviated the pain.

Lorna was taken ill the other day. She's in hospital. They're not sure what it is yet.

I had a heavy cold and a splitting headache, so I wasn't in a good mood. [the opposite of a heavy cold is a slight cold]

In accidents, wars, etc., things get damaged and people get injured:
Their car was slightly damaged but luckily no one was injured.

Exercises

27.1 Look at A. Match the verbs and expressions on the left with their collocations on the right.

1 sustain	diarrhoea
2 contract	a cold
3 have an attack of	breast cancer
4 develop	minor injuries
5 be diagnosed with	typhoid
6 catch	autism

27.2 Use the verbs and expressions in the left-hand column of exercise 27.1 instead of the verb get in these newspaper extracts.

1	Many musicians who get arthritis experience the tragedy of no longer being able to play their instrument.	3	To get cancer is the most frightening experience, and people often need intense counselling to cope with it.	5	Mr Taylor escaped with bruises, but experts say he was lucky not to have got serious injuries.
2	More than 50 passengers on the flight got moderate or severe diarrhoea. Medical officials suspect the in-flight catering was responsible.	4	Millions of people get malaria each year in poorer countries, and drugs to treat it are in short supply.	6	Patients often get pneumonia while in hospital. In fact, experts now think hospitals may be the worst place to be if you are sick and weak.

27.3 Complete the collocations. You are given the first letter of the missing words.

- 1 Flu is not a s..... illness for most people, but it can be l..... - t..... for elderly people who are weak and who haven't been vaccinated.
- 2 Patients who are t..... ill often prefer to die at home surrounded by their loved ones.
- 3 I'm not in pain, it's just a d..... ache in my back tooth. I hate going to the dentist's.
- 4 The children have a b..... diet, with lots of fruit and vegetables and only a few sweet things now and then.

AE-mail and the Internet

Look at these conversations where people are asking for assistance at an Internet café.

Customer: How do I go online?
 Assistant: You're already connected to the Internet. Do you want to send e-mail?
 Customer: No, I just want to browse the web for a while.
 Assistant: OK, just open the search engine or enter the web address and press 'enter'.
 Customer: I can't access my company's website. Can you help?
 Assistant: Have you put in the correct address?
 Customer: Yes, I'm sure I have.
 Customer: How do I reply to this e-mail? Sorry, I'm not very good with computers.
 Assistant: That's OK. Just hit 'reply', then compose your message, then press 'send'.
 Customer: Then can I forward the message to myself at my home address?
 Assistant: Yes. Make sure you enter the right address, or the e-mail will bounce [come back]. Let me know if you would like a hard copy of your e-mail and I'll show you how to print out your work. [a copy on paper]
 Customer: What do I do if I want to download this picture?
 Assistant: You have to save it to a disk. I can sell you one if you don't have one.
 Customer: Can I send an attachment with this e-mail?
 Assistant: Yes, you click here and then attach the file.
 Customer: I'd like to visit a chat room. Is that OK?
 Assistant: No problem. Select this option here. Then just ask if you need my help.

Alternatives to do and get

You can improve your written style by using alternative collocations instead of do and get.

expression with do/get	alternatives
do an exam	I have to sit/take an exam in biology at the end of term.
do research, do a research project	Our class carried out / conducted a research project into the history of our school!
do a course	I decided to enrol on / take a course in computer programming.
do a degree/diploma	She studied for / took a degree in engineering.
do a subject (e.g. law)	I studied/took history and economics in high school.
do an essay/assignment	All students have to write an essay/assignment at the end of term.
do a lecture/talk	Professor Parkinson gave a lecture on the American Civil War.
get a degree/diploma	He obtained / was awarded a diploma in Town Planning in 1998.
get a grade	Her essay received / was given an A-grade.
get a qualification	You will need to obtain/acquire a qualification in social work.
get an education	The country is poor; only 27% of children receive a basic education .

Don't confuse pass an exam with sit/take an exam. Pass means to be successful in an exam or test.

Say 'I did my homework', NOT 'I made my homework'.

Look at these conversations between a teacher and students. Note how the teacher uses more formal collocations to repeat what each student says.

Student: Do we have to go to all the lectures to do the course or just yours?

Teacher: You must attend all the lectures to complete the course.

Student: Excuse me. Where will next week's class be? In this room?

Teacher: No. Next week's class will be held in Room 405.

Student: When do we have to give you our essays?

Teacher: You have to hand in your essays on Friday.

Student: When do we have to send in our university applications?

Teacher: You have to submit your application by December 1st.

Student: What do I have to do if I want to leave the course?

Teacher: If you want to withdraw from the course, you have to go to the College Office.

C

More collocations connected with study and learning

Do you keep a vocabulary notebook? It's a good way of recording new collocations.

I did the first draft of my essay last week and the final draft this week. I have to hand it in tomorrow. Then the teacher gives us feedback after about a week.

We don't have exams at my school. We have continuous assessment. [system where the quality of a student's work is judged by pieces of course work and not by one final examination]

The local technical college provides training for young people in a variety of professions.

After secondary school, 30% of the population go on to higher/tertiary education, and 20% of adults do some sort of further education course during their lives.

Does your government recognise foreign qualifications for school teachers?

Exercises

29.1 Replace all the uses of do or get in this paragraph with more interesting words.

I have three daughters. The oldest one did a degree in economics at Birmingham University. She got her bachelor's degree last year and is now doing some research on taxation laws in different countries. The second one is doing a course at Newcastle University. She's doing history. She loves it, though she says she has to do far too many assignments. My youngest daughter is still at school. She's doing her school-leaving exams in the summer. She'll go to university next year if she gets good enough grades in her exams. She wants to do sociology and then get a social work qualification. My daughters are all getting a much better education than I ever had.

29.2 Complete these questions.

- 1 What homework do we have to tonight?
- 2 In which month do students usually their final exams in your country?
- 3 Who do we have to our essays in to?
- 4 Who is today's lecture on Shakespeare?
- 5 What do we need to do if we want to from the course?

Things you might do at work

Bella has a job as a PA. Basically her role is to take charge of her boss, who is not a very organised person, and make sure nothing goes wrong. She makes appointments for her boss and she makes sure he keeps his appointments. She spends a lot of time answering the phone and fielding telephone calls¹ on his behalf. When her boss has to travel, she makes the reservations for him. When her boss has to give a presentation, she makes all the preparations that are required, including making photocopies of any papers that he needs. She arranges meetings for him and she takes the minutes² at the meetings. Bella is a very well-organised person. She keeps a record of everything she does at work and sets herself targets. She does her best to achieve her goals. Every morning she makes a list of everything she needs to do. Today the first thing on her list is ‘Hand in my notice’³! But she’s not going to take early retirement. She’s got a new job where she will be the boss and will have her own PA.

¹ dealing with all the calls she can handle herself and only putting the most urgent ones through to her boss

² keeps the official record of a meeting

Going into business

Interviewer: When did you first go into business?

Harris: I set up a small business selling office supplies in 1989, filing systems, office equipment, that sort of thing. In 1991 I went into partnership with my old friend, James Britten. We made a loss for the first two years, but then things got better and we've made a profit most years ever since. But there have been bad times too.

Interviewer: In what way?

Harris: Well, during the economic recession of the early 1990s, a lot of small businesses were going under¹, and I thought our business would fold², but we survived. All around us, small firms were going bankrupt³. But in 1994 we won a contract, despite stiff competition, to supply the local government offices, and that was an important moment for us. We took on staff and expanded. And we were proud that we had created jobs for local people at a time when unemployment was high. Our sales figures improved steadily, and soon we had an annual turnover⁴ of more than ten million pounds.

Interviewer: So what's the secret of your success?

Harris: Well we're quite cautious. For instance, we always carry out⁵ market research before launching a new product. But also, we set a high value on customer service, especially after-sales service. But at the end of the day, running a successful business is a combination of hard work, luck and intuition.

Interviewer: Finally, there are rumours that you may float the company⁶ on the stock market.

Harris: At the moment we have no intention of going public⁷, and people shouldn't believe everything they read in the newspapers!

³ unable to pay debts, so the company's property is sold by order of a court of law

⁴ amount of business a company does in a year

⁵ the formal equivalent would be conduct market research

⁶ and ⁷ start selling shares in a business or company for the first time

More business collocations

Owing to the economic crisis, many small firms ceased trading. [closed their business].

There is cut-throat competition in the music industry these days. [very severe competition]

Market forces have caused many factories to close as businesses move overseas. [forces not influenced by government that decide price levels in an economy]

Our local dressmaker has gone out of business. People buy ready-made clothes these days. Her clothes boutique is doing brisk business since the shopping centre was renovated.

Business is booming for Internet-based travel companies as more people book travel online. [business is doing extremely well]

She resigned and went to work for a rival company.

I struck/did a deal with the car salesman and got a 15% discount for cash.

It's quite difficult sometimes to balance the budget because of increased costs.

Our company have put in a bid for the new leisure centre contract. [offered to do the work for a particular amount of money]

Remember, the collocation is do business, NOT make business: We're doing a lot of business in Asia these days.

AReviewing the work of academics

Look at these extracts from reviews in academic journals.

In 1998, Lucas Georgescu published the results of his groundbreaking research on genetics. His latest paper also makes a significant contribution to the field. He sets out some powerful arguments which will shape¹ our thinking for years to come.

¹ influence

Partridge strenuously defends her theory, which has come under attack recently in several journals. She argues that the Prime Minister played a central role in the political crisis of 1811, and goes into great detail to support her argument.

In this latest book, Marina Kass gives an account of Karl Marx's philosophy and provides evidence to support the claim that Garpov seriously misinterpreted Marx. In addition, the book offers a concise² summary of the present state of Marxist philosophy.

² short and clear

Nathan Peel attempts to establish a connection between mobile phone use and physical damage to users' brains, but he does not offer irrefutable proof³ and the statistics do not show any significant trends.

³ absolute proof, impossible to prove wrong

BStating things strongly and less strongly

The sentences below express opinions, either strongly or less strongly.

Strong expressions of opinion

The invention of the steam engine was the key factor in the birth of the industrial revolution.

The events of 1954 are a perfect example of how political leaders make misjudgements that have serious long-term effects.

This is a clear illustration of the importance of a strong monetary policy.

Less strong expressions of opinion

The figures offer a tentative explanation of the causes of acid rain pollution. [an explanation given by someone who is not totally certain that it is the correct explanation]

The statistics broadly support the view that the economy is heading towards recession.

COther general academic collocations

There is a strong tendency in the work of some linguists to suggest that spoken language is inferior to written language.

We must first gather evidence, then carry out a detailed study of all the factors that play a part in social conditioning.

You cannot expect your claim to be accepted if you cannot offer supporting evidence.

Simon Hart challenges the theory of social change put forward by Professor Kemp.

It is important in academic writing always to acknowledge your sources. If you fail to do this, you will commit plagiarism. [use another person's idea or a part of their work and pretend that it is your own]

We do research or carry out research, NOT make research.
Someone puts forward a theory or proposes a theory, NOT gives a theory.

AOrganising the text

Here are some useful collocations for organising one's arguments.

Adverbs in English fall into two main categories: those ending in -ly (e.g. softly) and those with other endings (e.g. well).

In this chapter, I draw a distinction between societies where democracy has developed slowly and those where it came about quickly or suddenly.

But we also need to take into consideration the economic history of Latin America as a whole.

Later, I shall make reference to the work of Georgi Perelmutter, a leading figure in the field of zoology.

Chapter 3 raises important questions about the need for transport planning in rapidly growing urban environments. It also touches on issues such as pollution.

This chapter makes a case for re-examining the assassination of President Kennedy in the light of evidence which has emerged since 1963.

BReinforcing arguments

Look at these extracts from university lectures and note the collocations.

Many studies have attempted to assess the significance of diet in the prevention of cancer.

Wastov lays emphasis on examining the vital first three years of a child's development.

These statistics lend support to the view that attitudes to the environment are changing fundamentally.

Some economists hold firmly to the belief that a certain level of unemployment is inevitable.

CMore collocations for referring to arguments

The book The Eye of the Universe draws an analogy¹ between the birth of the universe and a lottery. It also draws parallels² between the formation of new stars and the birth and death of flowers. It presents the case for a complete rethinking of how we understand space. The author, Patrick Rivaux, puts forward the argument that the universe is as it is because we humans are here looking at it. The author takes up / adopts the position that the universe cannot have any beginning or end, and states his opinion that we can never understand the universe using the human ideas of time and space. He argues convincingly³ that the universe has a unique nature. He draws attention to new research which suggests that other universes may also exist alongside ours. He briefly summarises⁴ the views of leading physicists and mathematicians, disagrees profoundly⁵ with some of them and draws the conclusion that science alone cannot solve the mystery of the universe.

¹ makes a comparison between things which have similar features, to help explain an idea

² says that something is very similar to something else

³ argues in a way that makes people believe that something is true or right

⁴ expresses the most important ideas in a short and clear form

⁵ disagrees very strongly or in an extreme way

- 5 The article concludes by briefly / shortly / precisely summarising the main points that the author wishes to put across.
- 6 The writer does / draws / creates some interesting parallels between life now and life in the Middle Ages.
- 7 I keep / take / hold firmly to my belief in the importance of basic human rights.
- 8 The book rises / arises / raises some key questions but fails to deal with them in a satisfactory manner.

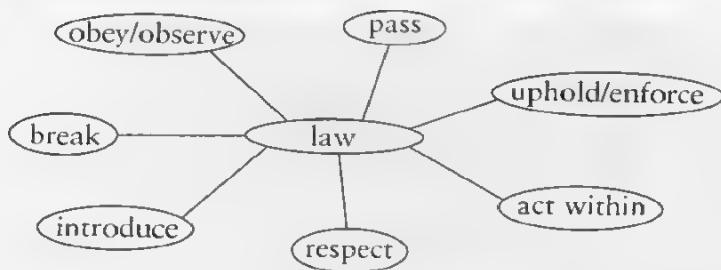

33.4 Correct the nine collocation errors in this review of an academic article.

Kerr takes in a controversial position in his latest article. He gets forward the argument that differences in behaviour between the sexes can be explained totally by the genes. He attempts to do a case for educating boys and girls separately in their primary school years. He argues, occasionally persuasively, that both sexes would benefit from this. He pulls attention to recent research which, he claims, makes support for his argument. However, he fails to draw a number of important factors into consideration. He also gives no reference to the important work of Potter and Sinclair in this field. I am sure that I will not be alone in disagreeing highly with many of his conclusions.

Talking about criminals

Note the collocations in these news clips.

The Judge, Mr Newell, said that Hickey was a hardened criminal¹ who had committed 12 serious offences. He ordered that Hickey should serve a sentence of at least 15 years in prison.

¹ someone who has committed a lot of crimes

The lawyer for the prosecution, Mr Arthur Larchwood, stated that Henry Banks was already a convicted criminal² when he was appointed chairman of the company but that nobody knew this fact. He had a conviction for robbery dating back to 1986.

² someone declared officially in a court of law to be guilty of a crime

B

Politicians on crime

Politicians often make speeches about crime. Here are some extracts from recent ones.

“In the fight against crime we will not just target serious crime, but all crime, including street crime and vehicle crime, so that the streets will be safer for everyone.”

“If someone breaks into your house, steals your car, or robs you in the street, then of course you feel society has let you down. That’s why we’re determined to tackle crime.”

“We are doing everything in our power to combat crime. The crime rate has come down, and that is because we have put 10,000 more police officers on the streets and focused on juvenile crime¹, because that is where the problem begins.”

¹ crime relating to young persons not yet old enough to be considered adults

“This government is doing very little to fight crime. We have all had some experience of the recent crime wave in our cities, whether it is petty crime² or more serious offences.”

² crime not considered serious when compared with some other crimes

“The crime figures are the worst since 1995. We have had a spate³ of burglaries in this part of the city, vehicle theft, drug abuse and so on, and police have reported a staggering increase in the number of acts of mindless vandalism. It is time the party in power did something.”

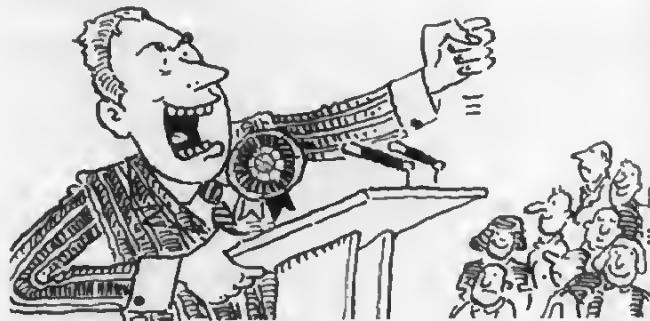

³ large number of events, especially unwanted ones, happening at about the same time

The Justice Minister said that the men were not political prisoners but were common criminals³ who had committed acts of terrorism.

³ low class criminal, negative term

The judge said it was vital that anyone with a criminal record⁴ should not be able to get a job where large sums of money were placed in their care. Charles Amworth, 26, had served two years in a prison for young offenders ten years ago before working for the bank.

⁴ list kept by the police of someone’s previous crimes

Don’t forget the difference between steal and rob. A person steals something, e.g. He stole a car / some money, but robs someone or an institution, e.g. She robbed an elderly person / a bank. Steal is often used in the passive, e.g. My car was stolen.

Prices

Many collocations including the word price are connected with height. Prices can be high or low. If they are very low, they may be called (usually by advertisers) rock-bottom prices. Prices may increase, prices go up and prices rise. If they go up very fast we say that prices soar. Occasionally prices go down. If you say that something is reasonably priced, you think it is neither too cheap nor too expensive. Calling something a ridiculous price may mean it is much too cheap or much too expensive.

Getting money

Henry and his brother grew up in a family where money was always tight¹. Henry hoped that when he was grown-up, money would be never be in short supply for him. Henry's brother only wanted a steady income but Henry wasn't interested in just earning a good salary, he wanted to make big money², to be seriously rich³. He started making money at school when he sold the sandwiches his mother had made him to other children. He also worked in his school holidays to earn money. He put this money in a bank account and hardly ever made a withdrawal⁴ from it. When he left school, he raised enough money through the bank to buy his first shop. He got a really good deal⁵ because he found a shop that was going cheap⁶. By the time he was twenty he had already made a small fortune⁷ though, of course, most of his money was tied up⁸ in his business.

War

When war broke out¹, my grandfather joined the army. War was declared on his 25th birthday. He didn't want to go to war but he had no choice. The government were sending troops to the south where they expected fierce fighting. At first there were just minor incidents but soon it developed into all-out war². My grandfather has told me how terrified he was the first time he came within firing range³ of the enemy. They saw him and opened fire⁴ but he was able to escape. A couple of his friends, though, were killed or taken prisoner. After several months our army went into action in the first decisive battle of the war. The battle raged⁵ for several days. My grandfather said he hated being involved in fighting the war and that the only armies we should have should be peacekeeping forces. He can never forget the horrors of war, and he believes that we must do everything we can to avert⁶ war in the future. I agree.

² a complete/total war

³ the distance within which the enemy could hit him by firing their guns

⁴ started shooting

⁵ the battle was very violent

⁶ prevent something bad from happening

B

Peace

collocation	example
bring about peace	It will be no easy task to bring about peace in the area.
negotiate a peace agreement	It can be useful to invite a neutral country to help negotiate a peace agreement.
call a truce/ceasefire	Although a ceasefire has been called for the duration of the peace negotiations, hopes of its success are not high.
sign a (peace) treaty	At the end of the war, all the countries involved signed a peace treaty in Paris.
lasting peace	Hopes for a lasting peace are, unfortunately, fading fast.
peace activist	Peace activists around the world staged a series of massive demonstrations against the war.
keep the peace	After the war was over, UN troops were sent into the troubled area to help keep the peace there.
restore order	Soldiers were sent in to restore order after the uprising.

The environment

Look at these extracts from letters to an international magazine.

Your article on climate change was excellent. Rising sea levels and the increase in greenhouse gases¹ are the result of our actions. We are disturbing the ecological balance everywhere, as can be seen in the decrease in fish stocks² in the oceans.

² the number of fish

It is clear that we must tackle pollution before it is too late. Exhaust fumes from millions of vehicles and the burning of fossil fuels³ are causing irreparable⁴ damage to our environment.

³ fuels such as gas, coal and oil

⁴ which cannot be repaired (also irreversible)

We must accept that we have seriously depleted⁵ the ozone layer in the last few decades by our selfish actions. Embracing green politics may be our best hope in the long term, but we need urgent short-term measures too.

⁵ reduced something in size or amount, especially supplies of energy, money, etc.

Crops fail year after year in some of the poorest parts of the world. This has brought devastating famines to some regions and equally devastating floods to others. We call these natural disasters, but it is human beings who are causing them.

⁶ causing a lot of damage or destruction

B

Poverty

Look at this radio interview with Pascal Delrio, an international expert, talking about poverty.

Interviewer: Mr Delrio, do you believe we can solve the problem of world poverty?

Delrio: I am more optimistic now than before. Millions of people have succeeded in escaping poverty in the last decade, but it is also true that in some regions, more people than ever are living below the poverty line, and we must help these people to lift them out of poverty.

Interviewer: But how can we achieve that?

Delrio: I accept that there is no simple solution. The widening gulf¹ between rich and poor in some countries is often due to external forces beyond their control. Some of the most deprived regions have large populations living on the margins of society, and it is for these specific groups that we can do most.

Interviewer: But poverty is not just an issue for developing countries, is it? We have thousands sleeping rough² every night in cities like London and New York, and street children in a lot of big cities around the world.

Delrio: I agree, and I accept that children and adults who live on the streets are in desperate need, and that these social conditions breed crime. But so much depends on the global economy. Right now, we have a golden opportunity to combat poverty. Perhaps we cannot eradicate³ poverty altogether, but we can certainly alleviate⁴ poverty, and that is our challenge.

Interviewer: Mr Delrio, thank you very much.

² in the open, without shelter ³ get rid of completely ⁴ make less serious

Other global problems

Thousands of people seek political asylum in other countries every year. Most are genuine asylum seekers, but some are economic migrants looking for a better life.

Hundreds of people took to the streets to demonstrate about third-world debt repayments. A terrible earthquake hit the region last year. The death toll was massive.

The sexual exploitation of children is a world-wide problem, as is child labour.

B Past and future

The past few weeks have been really difficult for Tina's two grown-up children. They're both at university writing dissertations. Her son's is on early 21st century fiction while her daughter's is about life in prehistoric times – she's not interested in the recent past at all. They are both working very hard. They are nearly finished but there are lots of last-minute things left to do. They set their alarms for five o'clock and get up as soon as the alarm goes off. They work from dawn till dusk¹ and indeed sometimes they stay up until the small hours². Tina can't wait until they stop working such ungodly hours³. It's taking them ages to complete their work but Tina is sure it will eventually all be worth their while⁴. She is sure they both have a great future ahead of them. She thinks they will both get good academic jobs in the not too distant future. Of course, no one can know what the future holds, but I hope she is right.

Verbs and sounds

A person can give a sigh, a laugh, a loud cry, a cry of pain/surprise/alarm, a gasp, a groan. A person, animal or thing can make a scratching/clicking/rustling/crackling sound.

Exercises

41.1 Look at A. Choose the correct collocation.

My friends and I went camping this weekend. We put up our tent in a lovely spot beside a (1) babbling / whistling stream. The birds were (2) piercing / singing and it felt great to be so far from the noisy traffic of the town. The weather wasn't very good but it was cosy listening to the (3) rumble / patter of rain on the roof of the tent. When it eventually stopped there was (4) an eerie / a piercing silence all around us. The silence was suddenly (5) broken / closed when a shot (6) crashed / rang out. Someone was shooting rabbits.

41.2 Are these noises loud or soft? Write L (loud) or S (soft) after each collocation.

1 a deafening sound	7 an almighty bang
2 a dull thud	8 an ear-splitting noise
3 music blaring out	9 a machine humming
4 a machine whirring	10 someone giving a sigh
5 raucous laughter	11 leaves making a rustling sound
6 a shrill voice	12 a muffled sound

41.3 Match each statement 1–8 with a response a–h.

1 I think those people might have had too much to drink.	a Yes, it really is too much to play such loud music after midnight.
2 Did the group react negatively to the news that the flight was delayed?	b Yes, I thought I heard a rumble of thunder in the distance.

Little, small and large

We talk about low prices, low wages, low levels. (NOT small)

We say small quantities, small numbers, small amounts, a small increase. (NOT little)

The opposite is large quantities, large numbers, large amounts, a large increase. Similarly, we talk about problems or objects being on a large scale or on a small scale:

If you are walking in the mountains you need a large scale map.

The UK has similar problems to the USA, but on a smaller scale.

In informal spoken English we often use little after another adjective to make it sound more friendly, e.g. poor little Joe, dear little dog, nice little room.

Little can also mean young, e.g. little brother [informal: younger brother, NOT small brother; the opposite is big brother]. Sometimes little or small suggests that something is not very important, e.g. a little problem, I've got a lot of little things to do, to make someone look small, to make small talk [talk socially, about unimportant subjects].

Other size collocations

We can talk about fat books and slim books as well as fat people and slim people. Only people (not books) can be plump or skinny or painfully thin.

We use a great deal of (NOT large or big) in contexts like this:

She should be able to help you because she has a great deal of time / a great deal of money / a great deal of energy / a great deal of enthusiasm.

Major and minor often collocate with words relating to problems or points in an argument, e.g. major/minor difference, major/minor change, major/minor effect, major/minor difficulty, major/minor point, major/minor issues, major/minor factor.

Take care with the different collocations that go with tall and high. We talk about tall people, tall trees, tall buildings, but high mountains, high prices, high interest rates, high heels, high tide, high jump. Make a note of any collocations with tall or high as you notice them.

Exercises

B

Describing light

Look at these extracts from short stories, where the writers describe different kinds of light.

It had grown dark, the candle flickered and Bertram could see almost nothing, but suddenly a powerful beam of light shone into the room and a police officer entered, with a torch in her hand.

It was pitch dark when she left the house, but by the time she arrived at the beach, the faint glow of dawn was visible on the horizon. The sky was tinged with gold.

A ray of sunlight fell on his face and woke him up. It was six a.m. Soon the glare of the sun would make it difficult to see his way across the desert. He must get to the village at once.

Above her, the stars twinkled in the night sky. Then she saw a pinpoint of light in the distance. As she walked towards it she realised it was a man on a bicycle coming towards her.

Wedding speech

Whenever I make a speech I always try to get to the point as quickly as possible. I could tell a lot of stories about Jim, my best friend since childhood, but I don't want to embarrass him, so I won't. Also, before the wedding, I gave him my word that I wouldn't crack any jokes, as I'm really bad at telling jokes. So I'll do no more than wish Jim and Sandra luck and hope they have a long and happy life together.

Business conversation

Paula: David, I wonder if I could have a brief chat with you about our new secretary?

David: Mm. Yes. I had a quick word with Lorna about it yesterday; she said there have been problems.

Paula: Could we talk now? I know it's a delicate subject but I don't think we need to make it a lengthy discussion with everyone involved.

David: Well, actually, I'm rather glad you raised the subject. Yes, let's talk.

Paula: Well, speaking off the record¹, every time you give her instructions, she never seems to understand, and if you challenge her directly she just pleads ignorance². The other secretaries are complaining bitterly that they end up doing her work. One of them dropped a hint that she might resign if nothing is done about it. I could tell by the tone of her voice that she was serious.

David: Oh dear. Oh well, I'll have a word with her and make it clear that she has to improve or we may have to ask her to leave.

Paula: Thanks, David. Anyway, let's change the subject. How's the sales plan going?

David: Oh, not bad, but I have to tell you the truth, I've been very busy with other things lately. In fact I was going to ask you a favour ...

Paula: I know what you're about to say! Don't worry, I'll help you with it.

Key walking collocations

Cathy always preferred to go places on foot rather than driving. She loved going for a walk in the park in the early morning. There were always a surprising number of people around. Some were taking a stroll with their dogs, while more energetic people chose to go jogging. Cathy liked going running too, but she preferred to go for a run in the evenings. In the morning she liked a brisk walk. Today she was surprised to see a man pacing up and down beside the lake. He was taking long steps as if he was measuring the length of the lake. Cathy was puzzled but thought little more of it at the time.

Adjectives and adverbs associated with walking

collocation	example	comment
an easy / a gentle walk	It's an easy walk into town from here.	Gentle walk suggests going slowly; easy walk suggests it's neither long nor difficult.
heavy/light steps	I could hear his heavy steps coming down the corridor.	Heavy can suggest either that the person walking is large or that they are sad, angry or tired.
a leisurely/gentle stroll	We can go for a leisurely stroll around the park later.	Go for a stroll is more common in speech than take a stroll.
to walk briskly/swiftly	The nurse walked briskly over to the bed.	Use these adverbs sometimes instead of quickly.
to pick your way cautiously	She picked her way cautiously along the icy pavement.	= walked carefully across a dangerous or difficult area to wander aimlessly	I didn't know what to do so I just wandered aimlessly around town all morning.	Both wander and aimlessly suggest having no particular purpose.
to stride angrily/confidently/purposefully	The president strode confidently across the room.	We can also say also took confident/angry/purposeful strides. Striding suggests large steps.

Walking through life

Walking collocations are often used metaphorically. Notice the examples in this text.

Jack always did very well at school. He walked¹ every exam he ever went in for. His teachers used to call him a walking encyclopaedia. It was only when he left school that he began to run into problems. He couldn't decide what job to choose. Many different walks of life appealed to him. He didn't want to rush headlong into² something that he would later regret. Eventually he decided he most wanted to become a writer. The next day he took his first faltering steps³ at writing a novel. After only a month or two he had made great strides⁴ and was ready to take his book to a publishing house. It was here that he ran up against some opposition. He seemed to get off on the wrong foot⁵ with the publishers, who didn't like him and turned his book down. They're sorry now! A second publisher accepted his novel and it's already a best-seller world-wide.

¹ passed very easily (informal) ² start doing something too quickly

³ not very confident steps. You can also talk about careful/tentative steps when someone is doing something which they are not confident about.

⁴ made great progress ⁵ make a bad start to a relationship

Remembering

Notice all the memory collocations in this dialogue between two old school friends.

Beth: I saw Terry last night. Do you remember her? We were at school together.

Tom: No, my long-term memory¹ is terrible these days. Come to think of it, my short-term memory² isn't that brilliant either. And I used to have such a good memory! Anyway, give me a clue³.

Beth: She was the one with long black hair and glasses. You always used to say that she reminded you strongly of that singer you used to like.

Tom: Oh, yes. I vaguely remember her now. She used to be friends with Jo, didn't she?

Beth: Yes. I'd clean forgotten⁴ about her too. She ran over to me in the street and said hello. My mind went blank⁵. I could remember her face but I'd completely forgotten her name. But once we started talking, the memories came flooding back⁶. My earliest memory of her is that we all went to the beach with her parents one weekend when we were about 12.

Tom: Oh yes. Now you're stirring up memories⁷ for me. I can distinctly remember being stung by a jellyfish in the water.

Beth: I can see why you wanted to blot out that memory⁸!

Tom: I can vividly remember it now though. Actually, the whole weekend was an unforgettable experience. We told ghost stories all night if I remember rightly.

Beth: Oh yes, that's right. Now I remember it well. It's terrible how memories fade⁹ as time passes, isn't it? Mind you, I'm happy to lose some of my more painful memories of school.

² memory of what happened recently

³ informal: tell me something more to help me

⁴ informal: completely forgotten

⁵ I couldn't remember anything

⁶ lots of memories returned

⁷ making old memories come back

⁸ avoid remembering something unpleasant

⁹ memories get less clear

When I first met my new boss, I had/got the impression that he might be a difficult person to work for. I sensed some tension between us. Now I have a feeling that he is trying to make things difficult for me. I don't know whether I should trust my intuition¹ and hand in my resignation. Or am I just being ridiculously over-sensitive²?

For the last few weeks I've been much more sensitive to heat and sensitive to light than I used to be. I've always had sensitive skin and sensitive teeth but this is much worse than ever before. My hands have also started going numb² if I get off cold. I used to have an acute³ sense of smell and acute hearing but I don't any more.

¹ feel confident that my instinctive feelings are correct

² losing all feeling ³ acute = sharp, very good

Remember the difference between a sensitive person [a person who is easily upset] and a sensible person [a person with good judgement].

B More formal ways of discussing beliefs

Look at this extract from a student essay and notice the collocations referring to beliefs.

The writer seems to make assumptions¹ based on an unshakeable belief in the superiority of his own value system. He seems to be unaware of the extent to which his own set of beliefs has coloured his judgement². His research leads him to conclude that military action was justified. However, his evidence is based on one single document and attaches too much importance to this. I do not trust his judgement. Moreover, other documents cast doubt on³ his conclusions. Opinions on the issue are divided⁴ and my own considered opinion⁵ is that the writer is not to be trusted. I have serious misgivings about⁶ his research and I have doubts about the accuracy of some of his facts.

¹ thinks or says things are true without enough evidence

² affected his judgement

56.2 Correct the seven collocation errors in this text.

I wish we can solve a big problem we have regarding our student committee. Opinions are separated about how to approach the issue and, naturally, some members have very heavy opinions. Some of their views are based on their unstirred belief that they are always right and that no one can challenge their group of beliefs. My own thoughtful opinion is that we should have new elections, but I know that others have quite a different meaning.

Deciding and choosing

A

Decisions and judgements

Note the collocations in bold in these e-mails between colleagues.

Hi Rita,

Have you made a decision yet about the new job? It must be difficult. It's such a big decision to have to move to London and everything. I always put off making decisions till the last possible moment. I bet you're the same. I detected a slight hesitation in your last e-mail. Are you having second thoughts? Anyway, let me know.

Paul

Dear Carl,

You've probably heard that the management have taken the decision to close the Madrid office. There was a lot of discussion, but apparently it was a unanimous decision in the end. There's always been a degree of uncertainty surrounding the future of the Madrid office, but let's just hope this will now be seen as a wise decision by everyone.

Jane

Dear Mary,

After weeks of hesitating, it seems Archie has arrived at a decision about the research fund. He's going to increase it by £10,000. I think that's a sensible decision that combines generosity and sound judgement. But he's also defending his decision to close down the San Antonio project, which is losing a lot of money. However, he's reserving judgement on the Berlin project until he gets more reliable information.

Choices, opportunities, advice

Tim: I'm going to have to make a choice soon about next year. I've been given the chance of going on a six-month expedition to South America and I've been offered a job in a bookshop here.

Laura: Wow! South America! That sounds like the opportunity of a lifetime! How could you say no?

Tim: Well, believe it or not, I don't have a burning desire to see the world, I'd much prefer just to stay at home. Anyway, I'm going to consider all the options before I decide.

Laura: Well, I know you never take my advice but I would strongly advise you to think of the future. Overseas experience is much more useful than working in your home town. You're lucky to have a choice, a lot of people stay at home because they have no option.

Tim: I know, I know, but it's a tough choice. You wouldn't understand.

Laura: Well I think you're just taking the soft option if you choose the bookshop. I can't believe you're going to pass up the opportunity of a trip to South America.

Tim: Well, we all face difficult choices now and then.

Laura: Difficult! You're mad! Look, just don't reject South America out of hand. Promise me you'll think about it.

Tim: Yes, yes, I already said I'm going to weigh up the options and come to a decision.

Horoscopes often focus on choices and decisions in people's lives. Read horoscopes in English and note any new collocations connected with decisions and choices.

Exercises

57.1 Using collocations from section A on the opposite page, complete B's remarks in these conversations so that B agrees with what A says.

- 1 A: I still don't know whether to take the job or not. But I'll have to decide soon.
B: Yes, you can't go on putting the decision for ever.
- 2 A: It was good that absolutely everyone agreed in the end, wasn't it?
B: Yes, I'm glad it was a decision.
- 3 A: I think I'd prefer to wait and see what happens before judging the new system.
B: Yes, I think it's best if we all judgement till we see the results.
- 4 A: I said I would join the committee but now I'm not so sure.
B: Mm, it's obvious you're having thoughts.
- 5 A: I felt he was hesitating a little bit before deciding, didn't you?
B: Yes, I definitely detected a hesitation on his part, you're right.

57.2 Complete each sentence using a word from the box.

- 8 I think you should your father's advice and say no.
- 9 I wish someone would me the chance to prove how good I am.
- 10 Have you to a decision yet about your university course?

57.3 Read these remarks by different people, then answer the questions.

Rhoda: I think I'll choose the supermarket job; the job at the children's hospital seems like very hard work. I want something easy.

Zubaya: I've decided to say no to the offer to join the conservation team in Canada.

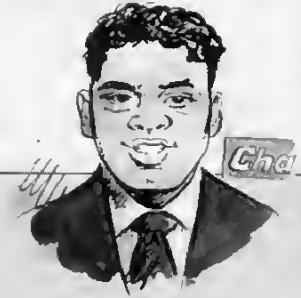

Kim: I desperately want to see the world; I'll take any job if it means I can travel.

Archie: I don't want to sell my flat but I have no other way of getting money.

Mabel: Me, work in a zoo? Never, absolutely not! I'm not even prepared to consider it!

Elaine: I've been offered a job singing on a cruise ship. It's fantastic! I'll never get an offer like this, ever again.

Making accusations

A government minister is today facing accusations of taking bribes. There have been heavy hints¹ about this for some time. An article in The Moon last week clearly implied² that a top political figure was involved in a scandal and dropped a number of broad hints³ as to who it was. A leaked document⁴ published in today's Moon, however, makes a number of serious allegations⁵, which openly accuse the Minister of corruption. The Minister has issued a statement⁶, saying the claims are unfounded⁷. He claims that he has been wrongly accused by The Moon because of its long-running battle⁸ with the government.

⁵ makes serious claims of criminal behaviour

² suggested clearly but indirectly

⁶ made a formal statement

³ made a number of obvious suggestions

⁷ the claims are untrue, have no basis in reality

⁴ an official document unofficially given to the press

⁸ an argument that has been going on for a long time

Putting forward a point of view

Jones puts forward an interesting theory¹ of language learning, backing up² his argument with thorough data. Fully accepting the fact that different learners find different methods useful, Jones makes the point³ that motivation is the key factor in most learners' success. Although this has been widely acknowledged⁴ in general terms for some time, Jones is more precise than most, stating clearly that motivation is more important than all other factors, and substantiating⁵ this claim with impressive data.

⁴ accepted by many people ⁵ supporting

C

Denying

collocation	example
strongly deny	The PM strongly denied claims of corruption made against him.
deny charges / an accusation	Despite the evidence against him, the accused denied the charges .
deny a rumour / an allegation	The pop star has denied all the rumours about her marriage.
disclaim responsibility	The hotel disclaims all responsibility for guests' vehicles.
reject an idea / a suggestion	Ann rejected all Joe's suggestions about how to decorate their flat.
run contrary to	The research findings run contrary to popular belief.
contradictory evidence/advice	Contradictory evidence made it hard for the jury to reach a verdict.

Note these collocations: deny/reject a claim, deny a rumour / an allegation / an accusation but reject an idea / a suggestion and refuse an invitation/offer. You deny/reject/refuse something. You deny that something is true. You can also refuse to do something (in the future) but deny doing something (in the past).

Exercises

58.1 Complete the sentences, using collocations from A.

- 1 A provided the press with information about the government's secret plans.
- 2 Management has been having a with trade union representatives over a number of aspects of employees' rights.
- 3 I'm going to get my son an iPod for his birthday. He's been dropping about what he wants for some time.
- 4 At the end of the three-day meeting a spokesperson will to inform the press about any agreements that have been signed.
- 5 A front-page article in today's paper is making some about the behaviour of some top international bankers.
- 6 The article did not name anyone directly but it who was involved.

58.2 Fill each gap in this extract from a scientific article.

In his latest article on the free market Milton King puts (1) some original theories. He (2) earlier ideas which up until now most economists have accepted without question. He (3) some fascinating points based on his own extensive research which is widely

(4) as an important contribution to economic thought. The data from his research (5) up his theories and help to (6) his claim that modern economies would benefit from major reforms.

58.3 Replace the underlined words with an appropriate form of either deny, reject or refuse to give the sentences the opposite meaning.

- 1 The politician agreed that the allegations made against him were true.
- 2 I think we should accept Jill's invitation to their New Year's Party, don't you?
- 3 Hill accepts the theories put forward by Jackson.
- 4 Katie agreed that she had been present at the meeting.
- 5 I hope they will accept my offer of help.

58.4 Rewrite each sentence using the word in brackets, so that it keeps the same meaning.

- 1 We are not responsible for valuables that are not left in the hotel safe. (DISCLAIM)
- 2 The pop star insisted that there was no basis to the claims made against him. (UNFOUNDED)
- 3 Jones's views do not accord with the facts. (RUN)

- 5 Paul insisted that what people were saying about him was untrue. (DENIED)
- 6 Whatever idea I suggest, Jim says it is no good. (REJECTS)
- 7 I don't know what to do, as everyone keeps suggesting I do something different. (CONTRADICTORY)
- 8 The student is being accused of cheating in his exam. (FACING)
- 9 In his new book the writer presents an interesting theory of art. (FORWARD)
- 10 Recent research supports McIntyre's theory. (UP)

Liking and disliking

Strong statements: nouns and adjectives

noun	collocations
liking	I have a particular liking for quiet, relaxing music. She had a genuine liking for her cousins.
love	His great love of nature can be seen in his paintings. Her passionate love of the sea inspired her to sail round the world.
regard [formal]	I have always had the greatest regard for her. She has the highest regard for her teacher.
enjoyment	I will never forget the sheer enjoyment of listening to the children singing. We get great enjoyment out of our little cottage in the mountains.
pleasure	It's been a great pleasure meeting you. I hope we meet again. It was such a huge pleasure to be able to relax and do nothing for a week.
preference	When asked, many people expressed a clear preference for organic food. I've always had a strong preference for short stories rather than novels.
dislike	I have an intense dislike of rock music that is played too loud. She took an instant dislike to Mr Peabody, but she did not know why.
aversion ¹	He has always had a huge aversion to hard work of any kind. Most people have a strong aversion to excessive violence on TV.
hatred	She had a deep hatred of politicians, especially corrupt ones. The deep-rooted hatred between the two tribes led to a bloody civil war.

¹ a feeling of strong dislike or a lack of willingness to do something

Verbs and nouns

These people are talking about their favourite airlines.

I think Globe Air are pretty good. You can state your preference for a special low fat menu, or seafood or vegetarian. They have great in-flight entertainment too – they try to cater for everyone's tastes. They seem to take pride in their service.

I do a lot of long-distance flying and I don't relish the thought¹ of a twelve-hour flight with no leg-room, so I usually fly with Arrow. They give you a lot of space, even in economy. And they seem to take pleasure in looking after you.

¹ don't like to think that it is going to happen

I think most people take offence² if they're just treated like a number. I have no sympathy for airlines that lose customers because they're too lazy to give them a warm welcome when they step on board. Visa Airlines are always very friendly.

² become upset because someone has insulted or disrespected them

Other useful collocations for likes and dislikes

I like most James Bond films, but Goldfinger is my absolute/all-time favourite. I've always been a great lover of Mozart's operas.

She's a(n) ardent¹/dedicated fan of American football. ['showing strong feelings]

I'm a keen admirer of President Futral of Collocania. He is such a strong leader.

My wife's father always filled me with admiration. He achieved so much during his life. It always gives me pleasure when I see my children doing well at school.

Exercises

59.1 Look at A. Rewrite each sentence using the word in brackets, so that it keeps the same meaning.

- 1 In the survey most people said they much preferred coffee to tea. (PREFERENCE)
- 2 Karl really dislikes people using mobile phones in restaurants. (AVERSION)
- 3 The staff all think very highly of their managing director. (REGARD)

- 6 My parents absolutely detest most modern architecture. (HATRED)
- 7 We enormously enjoy our weekends in the country. (GREAT)
- 8 Rex knew at once that he could never like his new secretary. (INSTANT)

59.2 Mark the statements with + if they are about liking and - if they are about disliking.

- 1 I have no sympathy for anyone who takes such foolish risks.
- 2 Jane Austen is my all-time favourite writer.
- 3 I'm a dedicated fan of Robin Williams.
- 4 I don't relish the thought of a holiday with all my cousins.
- 5 It gives me no pleasure to have to say this to you.
- 6 I take pride in doing my work as neatly as I can.
- 7 I must say I rather took offence at what she said to me.
- 8 I'm a great lover of the open air life.
- 9 I've always been a keen admirer of Nelson Mandela.

59.3 Choose the correct collocation.

I went to a new Italian restaurant last night. It claimed to (1) coter / coak / feed for everyone's tastes. I went there with my brother. We both have a (2) large / heavy / strong preference for Italian food. We also both have a (3) peculiar / special / particuliar liking for sitting out-of-doors and this restaurant had a lovely garden. Unfortunately, the food did not (4) make / give / pass us quite so much pleasure. Although the staff gave us a very (5) worm / hot / boiling welcome when we arrived, they didn't seem to (6) take / do / moke much pride in their service or their cooking. I certainly don't much relish the (7) suggestion / proposal / thaught of going there again.

59.4 Answer these questions.

- 1 Does it give you more pleasure to give a present or to receive a present?

- 6 Do you take more pride in your work or your home?
- 7 Name three people or things that you feel great love for.
- 8 Do you get more pleasure from reading or from listening to music?

Praising

Read this review of a theatre production from a local newspaper.

I have nothing but praise for this production of Dogs and offer my congratulations to all the cast. The thunderous applause at the end of last night's performance was richly deserved. The actors had managed to put on a simply dazzling production. James King, in particular, gave an outstanding performance. Of course, the cast cannot take full credit for its success;

we must also warmly congratulate the producer. He has received critical acclaim many times in the past. He justly deserves all the rave reviews² he will undoubtedly receive from many others as well as myself. We must also give credit to the production's wardrobe department. I am sure they will also win a lot of praise for their original and exciting costumes.

² very enthusiastic review [informal]

Also note these collocations relating to praise:

The orchestra received a standing ovation for their performance of the symphony. [the audience liked the performance so much that they stood up to applaud]

Your boss thinks the world of you. He's always singing your praises to me. [informal]

My parents always used to speak well/highly of that journalist.

Her father warmly/heartily approves of her new boyfriend.

I hope you will give your blessing to the plan. [say you wish it well]

Let's give the winner a big clap / a round of applause.

You deserve a pat on the back for such excellent marks! [you deserve praise]

B

Criticising

When you are criticised you come in for criticism. You may respond to this criticism, you may counter the criticism [criticise your critic back] or you may dismiss the criticism [say it is untrue or unimportant].

A person may show his/her disapproval or express his/her disapproval and this is often done by giving a look of disapproval or with a frown of disapproval.

word	collates with	example
criticism	harsh [strong], constant, constructive [useful]	The play came in for some harsh criticism .
critical	highly and sharply	The writer is sharply critical of our political system.
criticise	roundly [thoroughly], fiercely, bitterly	He was roundly criticised for his rudeness.
a critic	harsh, outspoken [critic who says exactly what s/he thinks]	Actors fear him because he is such an outspoken critic .
disapprove of	strongly, thoroughly	I strongly disapprove of smoking.
condemn	severely	The politician was severely condemned for his dishonesty.
condemnation	wholesale, universal [both mean by (almost) everyone]	The country's aggressive behaviour has earned universal condemnation .
object to	strongly, strenuously [with a lot of effort]	Local residents strenuously objected to the development plans.

Exercises

60.1 Complete these extracts from TV programmes where the speakers are praising people.

For this young violinist, Nuria Shilov, her performance ends with a (1)..... ovation and (2)..... applause. Her playing has received critical (3)..... in the last year in her home country, and now her talent has been recognised by an international audience.

Now the President of the National Badminton Federation (4)..... congratulates Wang Shih-Ping on his (5)..... deserved victory in this year's tournament. His skilful playing has (6)..... a lot of praise from commentators, though he personally refuses to (7)..... full credit for his achievements, and (8)..... credit instead to his manager, Karla Ennaisse.

Well, the team manager is ecstatic and is at this moment making a speech (9)..... the praises of the captain, Blake Samson, and the rest of the team. And there is no doubt that they (10)..... deserve all this praise for such a remarkable victory.

So, at the end of this week's quiz, the blue team have won. Let me (11)..... my congratulations to you all. You'll be coming back next week. And let's give the losers a (12)..... of applause. The red team also played a great game.

60.2 Circle T (True) or F (False) after each statement. If you circle F, say why.

- 1 If you speak highly of someone, you praise them. T F
- 2 If you have nothing but praise for someone, you do not approve of what they do. T F
- 3 If you criticise someone roundly, you criticise them only slightly. T F
- 4 If you heartily approve of something, you are in favour of it. T F
- 5 If you counter criticism, you just accept it. T F
- 6 If someone gives their blessing to something, they are against it. T F
- 7 If you give someone a clap, it is usually because you like what they have done. T F
- 8 If you give constructive criticism, you normally have a positive intention. T F

Key

Unit 1

1.1 1 A collocation is a pair or group of words which are often used together in a way which sounds natural to native speakers of English.
2 car and food
3 narrow-minded, teapot and car park
4 idioms

1.2 make mistakes powerful engine have breakfast make an effort watch TV ancient monument substantial meal bitterly cold pitch dark strictly forbidden
Other possible collocations are: make breakfast, substantial breakfast.

1.3 The first four statements are all true. The final statement is probably not true. You may well be understood if you use less natural collocations but you will not sound as you probably wish to sound.

compound	collocation	idiom
teapot	make a mistake	pull somebody's leg
key ring	heavy snow	a storm in a tea cup
checkpoint	valid passport bitterly disappointed live music

1.5 The most useful collocations to learn are underlined here.

When I left university I made a decision to take up a profession in which I could be creative. I could play the guitar, but I'd never written any songs. Nonetheless I decided to become a singer-songwriter. I made some recordings but I had a rather heavy cold so they didn't sound good. I made some more, and sent them to a record company and waited for them to reply. So, while I was waiting to become famous, I got a job in a fast-food restaurant. That was five years ago. I'm still doing the same job.

2.1 All of the underlined phrases are strong collocations.

My friend Beth is desperately worried about her son at the moment. He wants to enrol on a course of some sort but just can't make a decision about what to study. I gave Beth a ring and we had a long chat about it last night. She said he'd like to study for a degree but is afraid he won't meet the requirements for university entry. Beth thinks he should do a course in Management because he'd like to set up his own business in the future. I agreed that that would be a wise choice.

- 1 She's having a party.
- 2 She's taking an exam.
- 3 She's giving a lecture. / She's giving a party.
- 4 She's making good progress.

- 2 She led the discussion very skilfully.
- 3 The Prime Minister appointed a senior judge to lead the inquiry into the scandal.

Follow up

Here are some possible good collocations for the words suggested. You may choose to record them in different ways, of course. The important thing is that they are recorded as collocations in a phrase or sentence that will help you to understand their meaning and to remember them.

desperately ill; desperately busy; desperately keen; desperately in love with an acute pain; a sudden pain; to relieve the pain; to put up with pain (see also Unit 3) a wise decision; to be older and wiser; to be wise after the event; a wise guy (informal) to run a business; to run smoothly; buses run regularly; to run for political office

3.1

- 1 It puts them in bold.
- 2 in pain, constant pain, ease the pain, a sharp pain, aches and pains
- 3 It can take you to a lot of information about a word or about types of word very quickly.
- 4 You are shown a list of other ways in which the relevant word is used.
- 5 By writing INFORMAL after the relevant use of the word.
- 6 If your dictionary does not indicate good collocations either by putting them in bold or by using them in example sentences, then you should seriously consider getting another dictionary that will help you in this way. It will be very useful when you are writing English compositions as well as helping you to improve your vocabulary.
- 7 Your answer will depend on your own dictionary.

8.3 As you grow older, you'll begin to understand your parents better. Becoming angry with them all the time doesn't help. You may not want to go to summer camp when none of your friends will be there, but your parents know you will soon make new friends there. You would all have gone on a family holiday together if your grandmother hadn't fallen ill, but surely you can understand why they don't want to leave her. You'll feel much more sympathetic to your parents' feelings when you have a child of your own!

Last year I got a new job and started earning/making a lot more money. I realised I could afford to spend more money on my holiday than I usually do and decided to spend a month in Australia. I knew it would be hot there and so I wouldn't need to take warm clothes with me. In fact, I wore a t-shirt and jeans all the time I was there. I wore a hat all the time too, of course, to protect me from the sun. It was fantastic there. I spent a week sightseeing in Sydney and then spent the rest of the time travelling round the country. I even achieved my lifelong ambition of stroking a koala.

11.4 1 The Democratic Party won the election.

14.4 Possible answer based on the experience of one of the authors:

Last year I went to California. I made all the travel arrangements myself over the Internet so it was cheaper than using a travel agent. I got a charter flight and good budget accommodation in San Francisco for a few nights. Although it was a long, tiring journey from London, it was worth it. While in San Francisco, I took a day trip to the other side of the Bay, across the Golden Gate Bridge, and also went on a boat trip, which was fun. I had a smooth flight on the return journey but I was exhausted when I got home.

Unit 17

17.1 These collocations clearly describe negative aspects of character:

a selfish streak bear a grudge make a fool out of someone hurt someone's feelings

These collocations may describe negative aspects of character – it depends on your point of view:

painfully shy
snap decisions brutally honest

17.2

- 1 I know that I have a tendency to bear a grudge, but I just can't forget something bad a friend did to me recently. She has a selfish streak and doesn't care sometimes how much she hurts my feelings. I am finding it increasingly hard to keep my temper with her. But perhaps it might be better to lose my temper and let her know how I really feel?
- 2 I have always tried to put others first and not to think of myself. I believe you should not lose your patience with your friends, but if someone seems to enjoy making a fool out of you in front of other people, do those rules of friendship still apply?
- 3 I'm a little shy, though not painfully shy, but sometimes I think I give the impression that I'm unfriendly. How can I convince people that I'm good company and worth getting to know?
- 4 Should I talk about personal matters to my closest colleague at work? She is not very good at keeping secrets and she has a very vivid imagination. She always promises not to tell other people, but I'm not sure she always keeps her word.
- 5 My boyfriend has a really friendly, outgoing personality and a great sense of humour. He's highly intelligent and has a razor-sharp mind. The perfect man. We've been together now for a year, and I like him a lot, but don't love him any more. Should I be brutally honest with him and tell him?
- 6 I think a friend is destroying himself with drugs. I feel a sense of responsibility towards him. He has always been fiercely loyal to me in good and bad times, which is a wonderful aspect of his personality. I feel I ought to contact the police or social services, but I don't want to make a snap decision which I'll regret later.

17.3 1 B: Yes, he's found it hard to come to terms with his new situation.

1 Dear James
I have to tell you that there is widespread condemnation and mounting anger over the news that the company pension scheme is to be closed down. The issue has aroused strong feelings among the staff. I am personally becoming increasingly anxious that the situation might get out of control, and ask you to act immediately.
With best wishes,
Joanne Withers
Staff representative

2 Dear Joanne,
I too am seething with anger over this pension question. I tried to express my disappointment over it to the Board, but they simply dismissed the issue and that just made me extremely angry. I feel badly let down. I shall continue to do what I can.
Yours sincerely,
James Horgan (Resource Manager)

3 Gareth,
You probably know I didn't get the job I applied for. It's a huge disappointment.
Christina

4 Dear Winston,
I felt a great sadness when I heard of Patrick's death.
Will you be going to the funeral? It will be such a sad occasion, won't it?

Unit 24

24.1 Matthew: Have you read that new book that has just come out about Ireland?
 Lorna: No, I don't go to bookshops and I don't read book reviews. What's it about?
 Matthew: Well, it deals with the Irish War of Independence. It's very authentic and it manages to capture the atmosphere of Ireland at the beginning of the 20th century.
 Lorna: Is it just historical facts, then?
 Matthew: No, the central characters are two brothers who have different opinions about the war and this divides their family. In the opening chapters they're happy and do everything together, but by the closing chapter they have become enemies.
 Lorna: Mm, it sounds a bit depressing to me.
 Matthew: Well, it certainly doesn't have a happy ending, but I liked it, and it's highly recommended by all the critics.
 Lorna: So, a book with a pleasant beginning and a sad end(ing). Not for me, I'm afraid. I prefer the opposite.

26.3	Hi, Jose,
	Do you fancy coming on a sporting weekend with me next month? It sounds great – would make a change from playing computer games. You can do lots of different activities. You could even go fishing, I think. You can't go skiing at this time of year but you can go water skiing, if you like. Everyone has to do general exercises first thing in the morning and then you can do/play whatever sport you like, more or less. I've never played badminton so I think I'm going to do that. Then in the afternoon I'm looking forward to the chance to practise my tennis serve with their professional coach. Please try to come!

Unit 29

29.1 I have three daughters. The oldest one studied for / took a degree in economics at Birmingham University. She obtained / was awarded her bachelor’s degree last year and is now carrying out / conducting some research on taxation laws in different countries. The second one is taking / enrolled on a course at Newcastle University. She’s studying/taking history. She loves it, though she says she has to write far too many assignments. My youngest daughter is still at school. She’s sitting/taking her school-leaving exams in the summer. She’ll go to university next year if she receives / is given good enough grades in her exams. She wants to study/take sociology and then obtain/acquire a social work qualification. My daughters are all receiving a much better education than I ever had.

	4 attend	8 keep

29.4 Possible answers:

- 1 Schoolchildren often take those exams at about 16 if they are leaving school as soon as possible, or at 18 if they are planning to go on to further or higher education.
- 2 about 6 years
- 3 It does not depend on how you are feeling on one specific day. You can see whether you are improving or not as you go along. You can spend more time doing your work.
- 4 Feedback on the clarity and accuracy of the presentation, on the student's pronunciation, on the student's use of visual aids.
- 5 It helps you revise what you did in class. It gives you a chance to do extra things that you don't have time to do in class.
- 6 Write the words down in context, and revise what you've written down every few days or weeks.
- 7 Further education is less academic than higher or tertiary education. Students studying, say, car mechanics or secretarial skills are in further education whereas students studying, say, to be lawyers or doctors are in higher or tertiary education.
- 8 You'd expect a final draft to be better than a first draft, to be better organised, to have fewer spelling mistakes, and so on.

33.4 Kerr takes up a controversial position in his latest article. He puts forward the argument that differences in behaviour between the sexes can be explained totally by the genes. He attempts to make a case for educating boys and girls separately in their primary school years. He argues, occasionally convincingly, that both sexes would benefit from this. He draws attention to recent research which, he claims, lends support to his argument. However, he fails to take a number of important factors into consideration. He also makes no reference to the important work of Potter and Sinclair in this field. I am sure that I will not be alone in disagreeing profoundly with many of his conclusions.
